LIEUT. LAURENS M. HAMILTON

ISAAC H. ORR MARRIES FORMER TEACHER IN CHICAGO
Vice President of St. Louis Union Trust and Miss Ann Marshall Wed—Go to Florida.
Isaac H. Orr, 57 years old, of 5450 Delmar boulevard, vice president of the St. Louis Union Trust Co., was married Saturday evening at Oak Park, Chicago, to Miss Ann Marshall, formerly of Detroit, a niece of John L. McDowell, a St. Louis real estate dealer.
The Rev. G. A. Hulbert, pastor of the King's Highway Presbyterian Church, departed for Chicago Friday night with Orr and a party of relatives, and performed the ceremony, which was at the home of Miss Marshall's uncle, James D. McDowell.
Miss Marshall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Marshall of Salem, Ill. Until Christmas she was head of the English department of a girls' school in Detroit. Last summer she was secretary to the Rev. Dr. Hulbert. She and Orr were acquainted many years, and were engaged several months.
Orr and his bride have gone to Florida for several weeks. She is said to be about 35 years old. Orr's first wife died five years ago.

BILL INTRODUCED TO GIVE EQUALITY TO FRENCH WOMEN

Veteran Socialist Presents Measure in Chamber Granting Rights Possessed by Men.
PARIS, Feb. 2.—Julius Guesde, the veteran socialist leader, backed by 65 members of the Chamber of Deputies, has introduced a bill in the Chamber which would give women civil, political and economic equality with men.
The excellent prints interviews with six prominent deputies of various groups in the Chamber, all of whom are in favor of the bill.
"The world," said M. Guesde, "has scarcely awakened from the bloody nightmare into which the errors of society as it is now constituted plunged it. The social reform which actually can never be realized without the close collaboration of all human beings."

POLES GET U. S. WAR MATERIAL

800,000 Men Outfitted With American Uniforms.
By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Feb. 2.—One hundred carloads of American war materials purchased from the American army have arrived in Poland, with which to outfit the Polish army. The army materials have been supplemented by an issue of underwear, socks and sweaters provided by the American Red Cross. A new levy of 300,000 men is being outfitted almost entirely with American army uniforms, including overseas caps. Five hundred thousand pairs of American Red Cross socks and 250,000 sweaters were distributed in December. American uniforms are worn by most of the Polish army at the front. Seventy thousand men of the army either are American born or naturalized Americans.

E. T. MEREDITH ENTERS CABINET

Succeeds Houston, Who Leaves Agriculture for Treasury Department.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Edwin T. Meredith of Des Moines, Ia., became a member of the Cabinet today, succeeding David F. Houston as Secretary of Agriculture.
Mr. Houston was sworn in at noon as Secretary of the Treasury, replacing Carter Glass, who took his seat in the Senate to fill out the unexpired term of the late Senator Martin of Virginia.

MRS. HAMILTON ASSAILS BISBEE DEPORTATION TRIALS ARE BEGUN

Three of 210 Accused of Kidnaping Striking Copper Miners Get Hearing at Tombstone, Ariz.
By the Associated Press.
TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Feb. 2.—Three men of the 210 accused of kidnaping in connection with the deportation of 1136 striking copper miners and their sympathizers from Bisbee, Ariz., to New Mexico, on July 12, 1917, went to trial in the Cochise County Court here today. Fred Sandther and James Boyd, mine shift bosses, of the Warren mining district, and Phil Tovea, Bisbee meat dealer, were the first defendants to face the State court.

The other defendants include mining officials, bankers, business and professional men of the Warren district, who are charged with the kidnaping camps and cities of Bisbee, Lowell, Warren, Bakersville and other small camps.
What the State charges, the defendants are putting into effect a kidnapping conspiracy to deprive the deportees of their lawful rights. Besides the defendants, it was said by the Prosecuting Attorney that more than 1000 persons participated in the deportations, rounding up the strikers and sympathizers, loading them into box cars and sending them across the State boundaries into New Mexico, where later the deportees were cared for in a great camp provisioned and cared for by United States soldiers.
The defense, it was intimated when court opened, will attempt to show the strike was the outgrowth of I. W. W. agitation, that miners who cared to remain at work were kept from the mines by intimidation and that the deportations were lawfully resorted to under direction of the then Sheriff, Capt. Harry Wheeler, who arrived in the defendants as Deputy Sheriffs. It was said that attempt would be made to show that the United States was at war and the strike was crippling the country's efforts to obtain copper for manufacturing munitions and otherwise carrying on war work.

Millionaires Among Defendants.
The cases promise to become the most famous in Arizona. The defendants include the most prominent men in the State, and millionaires are included in their number.
The deportations already have an interesting official history. Following them a Government investigation was made and President Wilson was quoted to the effect the laws had been broken.
FICTITIOUS NAME GIVEN FOR WOMAN HURT IN ACCIDENT
Miss Adele Monroe of Annapolis, Md., Pinned Beneath Automobile Driven by W. F. Niedringhaus.
The young woman who was riding in the automobile which was pinned under the house of George W. Niedringhaus, 3745 Lindell boulevard, when it overturned as it was driven from Clayton road into Pennsylvania avenue, at 10:30 p. m. Saturday, was Adele Monroe, 25 years old, of Annapolis, Md., not Miss Adele Moore of Boston, Mass., as it was announced from the home of Warren C. Nixon in the St. Regis apartments at the time.
Nixon said today that the purpose of giving a fictitious name was to prevent news dispatches appearing in Annapolis before opportunity was had to notify Miss Monroe's relatives that she was missing. He said that Monroe is Miss Nixon's sister. Niedringhaus was thrown clear of the car, but Miss Monroe was pinned under it. She was extricated by Niedringhaus and a passer-by.

HOUSE WILL TRY AGAIN TO ABOLISH SUBTREASURIES

Bill Introduced in Effort to Save $600,000 a Year by Leaving Work to Reserve Banks.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The House of Representatives will make another effort this year to abolish the sub-treasuries at St. Louis and other cities on the ground that they involve the needless expenditure of $600,000 annually. The last three or four years the House has stricken out the estimates for the sub-treasuries but the item has always been restored by the Senate. It is the present intention of the House Appropriation Committee to allow the item to stand in the legislative executive and judicial bill for the fiscal year beginning next July 1, with the proviso that it shall be eliminated thereafter.
A bill to abolish sub-treasuries at Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans and San Francisco on Jan. 30, 1921, was introduced today by Representative Platt, Republican, New York.

CHARGE AGAINST WOMAN OF STEALING ELECTRICITY DROPPED

Warrant Dismissed When Union Electric Co. Refuses to Prosecute Mrs. Henrietta S. Madill.
The warrant issued Jan. 10, charging Mrs. Henrietta S. Madill of 4456 E. 12th street, with theft of electricity, was dismissed today in Judge Miller's court upon announcement by Prosecuting Attorney Sliedner that there was no disposition on the part of the Union Electric Light and Power Co. to prosecute.
Mrs. Madill is the widow of Charles A. Madill, a bond broker, who was the son of the late Judge George Madill. At the time of the death of her husband Mrs. Madill was sole legatee of his estate, which was inventoried at $50,000 of personal property and two pieces of real estate.
It was charged in the warrant that a "run-around" was found on the electric meter in Mrs. Madill's home. A "run-around" is a device to prevent electricity used from passing through a meter. Mrs. Madill has declined to discuss the case.

THAT LONG-LOOKED-FOR BARGAIN

3 Cents in Stamps for 2 Cents to Carry Over Letter.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—On account of the prevailing paper shortage as well as for the sake of economy the Postoffice Department has authorized the sale, after special cancellation, of all unused 3-cent stamped envelopes for use as 2-cent present letter postage rate. With the restoration of 2-cent postage, a large unused supply of 3-cent envelopes was left on the hands of Postmasters and as the demand for new envelopes was greater than the available supply, it was decided to convert the 3-cent envelopes by a cancelling process in a form to meet present needs.

BRITISH WANT NO MORE LOANS

Officially Deny Any Desire to Borrow Large Sums in U. S.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Positive assertion that the British Government does not plan to seek further loans in the United States but that the country is desirous of reducing the obligations it already has incurred here, is included in a statement from London transmitted to Secretary Glass through R. C. Lind-say, British charge d'affaires.
The statement also denies emphatically "repeated allegations in the press that the British Government desires to borrow large sums in the United States."

ESTONIA AND REDS AT PEACE

LONDON, Feb. 2.—Peace was definitely concluded this morning between Estonia and the Russian Soviet Government. It was announced in a wireless dispatch from Moscow received this afternoon.

TIED OF BEING ROBBED, HE TELLS POLICEMEN

Proprietor of Candy Store Loses Sunday's Receipts to Three Armed Men.
Max Schwartz, 40 years old, 1819 Wash street, proprietor of a confectionery store and luncheon at 1104 Franklin avenue, reported he had been stopped by three armed men at Eighteenth street and Franklin avenue early today and marched into an alley near by, where he was robbed of $567, the receipts of the store for Saturday night and yesterday.

Schwartz told the police he was tired of being robbed and recalled that a few months ago he had been held up in his store and robbed of a diamond valued at $1000.
Three armed men stopped Clarence Hank, 3810 Indiana avenue, near Blair avenue and Benton street, at 8 p. m. yesterday and made him go into an alley, where they robbed him of $15.
George Conlon, 3859 Blaine avenue, was held up by a highwayman near St. Louis avenue and Whittier street at 2:30 a. m. and robbed of $14 and his watch.
Isaac T. Cooper, 4287 Washington boulevard, was held up by two men near his home and robbed of $15, at 9 p. m.

John T. Nansen, 901 Dover street, interrupted a burglar at work in the home of his parents there at 7 p. m. when he returned home. The man ran down the front stairs, he said, shoved a revolver in his face and remarked:
"You get in your room, young man, and stay there." Nansen obeyed.
Nansen was found the man had taken jewelry valued at $100 but had dropped a suitcase he had previously filled with clothing valued at $200.
Other burglaries reported were in the home of John S. Gausman, 1056 Theobald avenue, $230 in jewelry, soft drink store of Emial Berra, 5101 Wilson avenue, $292 and pistol, and home of William Armistead, 2630 Caroline street, $31.

BOLSHEVIST ENVOYS TRAVEL AS U. S. RED CROSS AGENTS

Couriers Go Between Moscow and Berlin Hearing Red Communications.
By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Feb. 2.—Bolshevist agents entrusted with messages regarding sensational widespread Red plans have been for a considerable time traveling between Berlin and Soviet Russia on false credentials. It is stated in official quarters, the credentials they carried are said to have described them as delegates of the American Red Cross mission in Berlin to conduct investigations regarding the exchange of German prisoners from Russia.
The agents, it appears, were carrying dispatches between Moscow and Bolshevist organizations in other countries, including the German Spartacists and the Swiss Communists.

POLICEMEN TO VISIT ALL HOMES ON THEIR BEATS TO AID CENSUS

Will Report All Houses in Which Any Occupant Has Not Given Required Facts.
Policemen will begin at once to go to homes on their beats asking residents if they have been enumerated in the census.
This is at the request of Supervisor of the Census John A. Burke and civic organizations assisting him in getting every resident into the count.
Chief O'Brien assembled all captains and lieutenants today and told them that the police were to report on blanks provided, as they go about their beats, all houses in which any occupant has not given the required information. A refusal of information is to be reported to the Census Supervisor.

BODY OF MAN, 75, FOUND FROZEN IN ICE OF POOL NEAR BARRACKS

County Coroner Says Nothing but Cigarettes Was in Pockets.
—Dead a Month.
The body of a man, apparently about 75 years old was found yesterday frozen in the ice of a pool on the Jefferson Barracks reservation about 1600 feet from the Mississippi river.
Coroner Denny of St. Louis County, said that the man probably had been dead at least a month. The man had a white beard and mustache. Nothing but a package of cigarettes was found in the clothes. The body was removed to a Creve Coeur undertaking establishment.

30 U. S. OFFICERS GUESTS AT DANCE AT NOGALES, SONORA

Entertained by Nogales Chamber of Commerce on First Visit Since 1912.
By the Associated Press.
NOGALES, Ariz., Feb. 2.—Under command of Col. Earl Carnahan, 30 officers of the Twenty-fifth Infantry and the Tenth Cavalry, crossed the international rail to Nogales, Sonora, Saturday night, where they were guests of the Nogales Chamber of Commerce at a reception and ball. This visit is the first by American officers since the outbreak of the revolution in 1912.

Lebudy's English Estate $7,850,000.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Feb. 2.—Announcement is made that the net value of the estate of Jacques Lebudy in England has been fixed by the Probate Court at $7,850,000. Lebudy was shot and killed by his wife at their home near Mineola, N. Y., Jan. 12, 1919. Miss Lebudy was later re-narrated by the jury.

1200 MEN WANTED FOR TAKING OF U. S. INDUSTRIAL CENSUS

Canvassers to Begin Listing Enterprises on March 1 at $1 to $1.50 Each.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Sam L. Rogers, director of the census, is looking for 1200 persons between the ages of 21 and 60 to assist in taking the biennial industrial census of the United States. The work will begin March 1 and will last from two to four months. Rogers estimates that the canvassers, who will be paid $1.50 for each new enterprise listed and $1 each for others, can earn from $125 to $150 a month. Discharged soldiers, sailors and marines will be given the preference in making appointments. Applications should be made to the Director of the Census at Washington.

Statistics will be gathered on manufactures, mines and quarries, oil and gas wells, for the calendar year, 1919. The last such census was taken in 1914, but beginning this year the census is to be done every two years. Though under the direction of the census bureau here, it is entirely independent of the population census now in progress.
The industrial census, the country has been divided into 549 districts, of which 18 are in Missouri. Headquarters for that State will be at St. Louis, Kansas City and Joplin, and 32 special agents will be required.

MARKED DECLINE IN REPORTS OF INFLUENZA CASES

of the schools, which, he said, may occur at any time.
Continuation classes (four hours each week for working boys and girls under 16) and night schools will remain closed for the same period as the day schools. The Harris Teachers' College, training school for elementary teachers, East and Theresa avenues, where classes are small, will remain open. Bellefontaine farm for neglected and delinquent boys, in St. Louis County, will continue to operate as a school, but as an emergency precaution to cut down the number of unnecessary public gatherings, the Park Department today ordered the closing of the city's 12 community centers, most of which have their headquarters in public school buildings.
Community Centers Closed.
Under normal conditions, these centers provide entertainment and instruction for residents in the congested districts, the activities including community dances, lectures, moving picture exhibitions and basketball games.
Mayor Kiel said he hoped the heels of the prevalence has been reached, and that he did not favor closing places of amusement at present.

"Children were required by law to attend school," he said, "but they are not required to go to school, and I think parents can be depended upon to keep them at home. One reason for closing the schools was that the number of teachers and pupils was so reduced that the efficiency of the schools was temporarily destroyed anyway."
Closing of theaters and moving picture shows was demanded in a resolution passed yesterday by the Public Welfare Committee of the Tenth Ward Improvement Association. The resolution declares that it is "unfair" to close the schools and leave places of public assemblage open.
The Tenth Ward resolution also demanded more frequent cleaning of street cars, and a temperature of 70 degrees in the cars. The health authorities, now require that two transoms on each side of every car be kept open, and this tends to lower the temperature of cars.
The Health Commissioner today amended his order for the closing of continuous theaters and picture shows, by reducing the time required for ventilation from one hour to a half-hour, between 5 and 6 p. m. It was decided that a half-hour would do as well as a longer time. Theaters which give afternoon and night performances must be ventilated by opening of doors and windows in the interval, whether they have ventilation systems or not.

Sailor Dies of Pneumonia.

Lloyd C. Jett, 18 years old, an apprentice seaman on recruiting duty with the local navy bureau, died at the Public Health Service Hospital yesterday of pneumonia, following influenza. He enlisted at Pearl Harbor, six months ago. He resided with his grandfather at Mulberry Grove, Ill.

University City Schools to Remain Open for the Present.

The University City Board of Health has decided that the schools shall remain open for the present, and that if schools are closed, the moving picture shows shall be closed also.
The board has official knowledge of only 23 cases in University City, and no death has been reported.

Two Deaths, 39 New Influenza Cases in East St. Louis.

Two deaths from pneumonia following influenza, and 39 additional cases of influenza were reported today to the East St. Louis Health Department, making a total of eight deaths and 603 cases since Jan. 1. Health Commissioner Lillie said that the number of cases reported daily as having been terminated is encouraging.

New Influenza Cases in Chicago Show Marked Decrease.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—Only 453 new cases of influenza were reported during the past 24 hours, but, despite the marked decrease, the death rate remains practically constant, with 91 reported since yesterday. Pneumonia caused an additional 67 deaths, while 241 new cases were reported.

RARE WINE AT AUCTION IN PARIS

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Feb. 2.—Connoisseurs of wines gathered in force at the Hotel Drouot Friday, where 2400 bottles of rare vintages and liquors, the property of the late Prince Orloff, were auctioned. The sale, which lasted four hours, netted 75,000 francs (normally $15,000), or an average of more than $1 franc a bottle. The highest price paid was $30 francs apiece for 10 bottles of brandy dated 1870 and 1883.

PLANS UNDER WAY FOR NEW FEDERAL BUILDING

Bids for Construction in St. Louis Will Be Invited in Few Months.
By the Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Plans for the Federal office building, to be erected on the Government lot at the southeast corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets, in St. Louis, are now being drawn in the office of James A. Wetmore, acting Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department. They will be completed in two or three months, after which bids for the construction of the building will be invited.
Tentative sketches were prepared about two years ago, when it was planned to erect a building to house the sub-treasury as well as other Government offices. These drawings have now been discarded and work begun on others in conformity with the new authorization of Congress, approved by the President, for a building omitting sub-treasury accommodations.
Will Cost Million Dollars.
The cost will be about a million dollars. A request for the appropriation of half this amount has just been submitted to Congress by the Treasury Department and the item probably will be included in the next sundry civil bill. The cost required for the completion of the building will be sought as it is needed.

Now that the bill authorizing the building has been passed there is no doubt, according to Congressman Dyer, that the necessary funds will be forthcoming. This is the opinion, too, of Treasury officials, who said today they expected the work to go forward without a hitch. A $600,000 appropriation they said, would be ample as a first installment.
Enlargement Possible.
The plans now being drawn call for a building of four to five stories, constructed of brick or concrete. More stories can be added to meet expanding needs of the Government for office space. The building will fill the entire lot, which measures 118 feet on Fourth street and 151 on Chestnut.

The front will be on Fourth street. In general appearance the structure will be like the best type of modern commercial office building. The exterior of the first story will probably be of limestone or sandstone, and brick and stone will be used above. There will be an entrance lobby finished in marble with a tile or terrazzo floor. The remainder of the interior will be in the usual style of a first-class office building.

HOUSES SHAKEN DOWN IN BRAZIL BY A SEVERE EARTHQUAKE

Intensity of Shock Said to Have Been Without Precedent—Tremors Recorded in Washington.
By the Associated Press.
BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 2.—Dispatches from the state of Minas Gerais, Brazil, reported that a severe earthquake Sunday shook down a number of houses in the country districts, creating great panic among the inhabitants. The dispatches say that in intensity the earth shock is without precedent in that region.

Tremors Recorded in St. Louis for Nearly an Hour.

The seismograph at St. Louis University recorded the earth almost continuously from 6:21 a. m. to 7:16 a. m., with one violent shock. It was said that the distance from St. Louis could not be reckoned from the data recorded.

NAGEL SAYS HE WILL ACCEPT WAR RELIEF CHAIRMANSHIP

Election to Be Held in New York This Week—Local Branch to Hold Bazaar.
Charles Nagel said today he had been asked if he would accept the chairmanship of the War Relief Association, an organization to provide material assistance for the destitute people of Europe and he had said that he would. The election will take place in New York this week.
"I think it is pretty clear at this time," he said, "that if we do not act quickly to relieve distress no one can foresee what may happen in Europe and the world at large."

—the new Temtor Label
The name—Temtor—is your guarantee of the good old home-made taste and purity of Temtor Products—even if you happen to get them with their old labels.

An Old-Time Home-Made Taste Won Temtor This Great Business

THREE immense factories are now needed to make enough Temtor Products to give everyone all they want of that good old home-made taste.

For ten years Temtor Preserves and Syrups have been made so well—with the same pure fruits and sugar that were used for home preserving—that the St. Louis factories of the Best-Clymer Manufacturing Company couldn't be built fast enough to supply Temtor Products to all the people who wanted them.

—And so, a few months ago, a larger, more powerful company was organized—and called the Temtor Corn and Fruit Products Company, to make that good old home-made taste on a much larger scale. The new company bought the immense factories of the Corn Products Refining Company, at Granite City, Illinois. The price paid for this property was four and one-half million dollars.

In St. Louis, the "Mother" plant of the Temtor Products Company is being increased so that it will soon be making more than twice as many preserves as ever before—and down at Fort Smith, Arkansas, there is still another large Temtor factory—adding its daily output to help satisfy the sweet tooth of America.

Temtor Preserves are pure, fresh fruit and sugar—prepared in shining copper kettles, in vast home-like kitchens of spotless cleanliness. The delicacies sold under the Temtor Label are: strawberries from Missouri and the Middle West; loganberries, raspberries and blackberries from the garden spots of the Northwest coast; cherries and plums from Michigan and Wisconsin; peaches, pineapples, oranges and quinces from California; and Jonathan and Ben Davis apples from the Ozark Hills of Missouri and Arkansas.

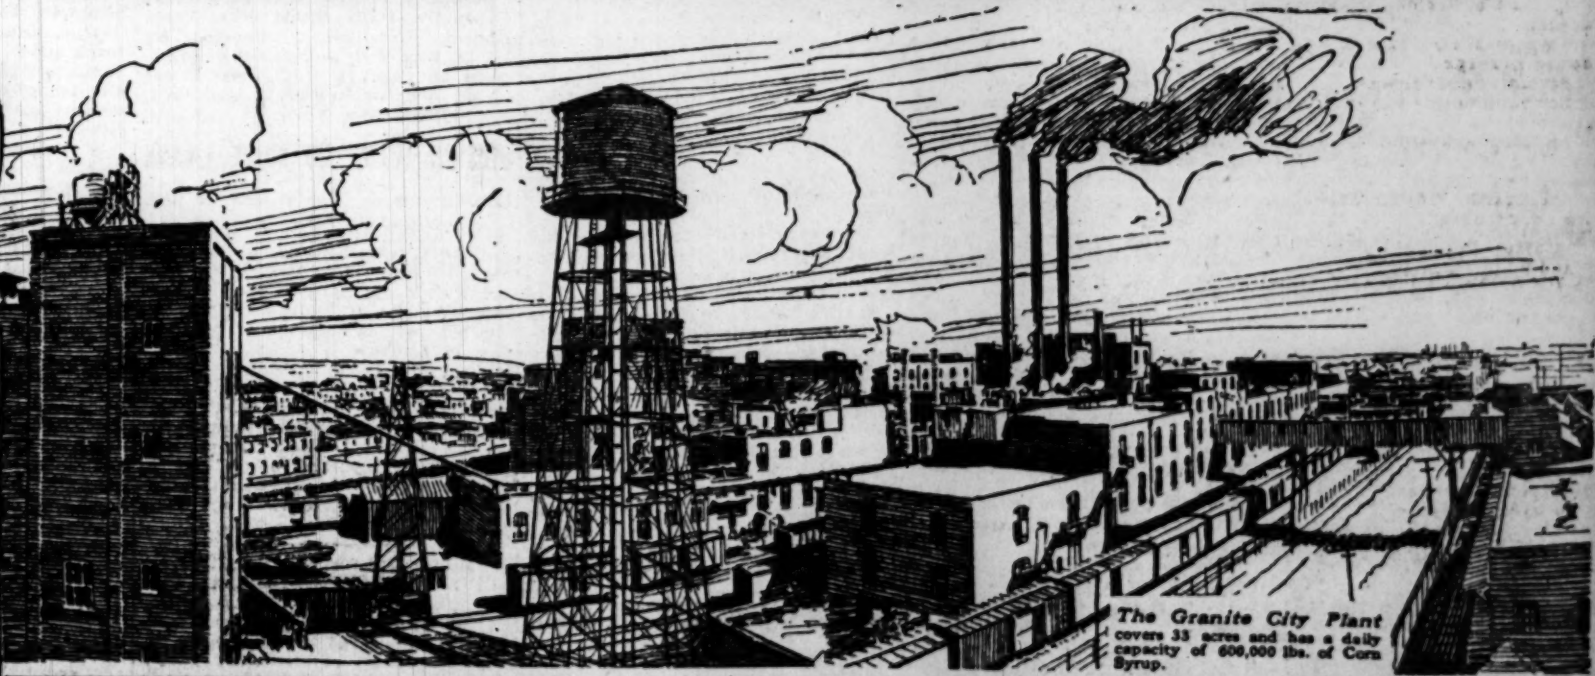

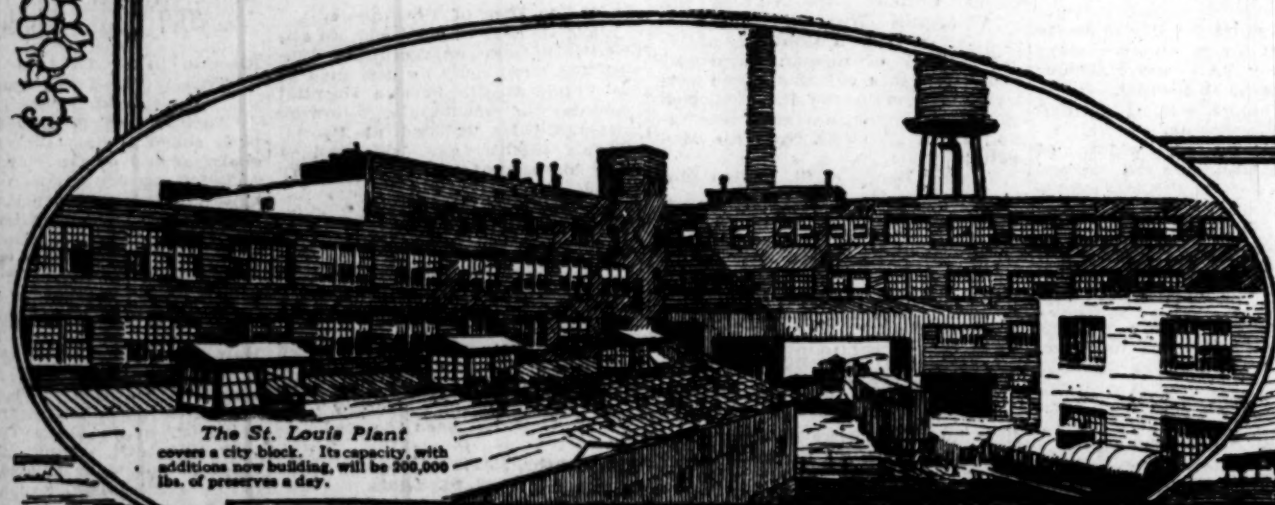

In addition to supplying the public with delicacies like this—the Temtor Corn and Fruit Products Company is a large manufacturer of Pure Corn Syrups and Sorghum Syrup. It has 6,000 acres of land under lease—and in addition to its own crops has to purchase in the open market to supply its large sorghum mills—which are in the Ft. Smith plant.

The 1919 sales of the St. Louis plant alone were more than four million dollars. As soon as its new factory buildings are completed and its still greater production is combined with that of the Ft. Smith and Granite City plants—about October 1st—the Temtor Company will then be making and selling from twenty to thirty million dollars' worth of Temtor Products a year.

The good old home-made taste that won this great business will win your approval. The next time your "sweet tooth" gets aching for good things to eat ask for your favorite fruit preserved the Temtor way.

SCHOOL BOARDS TO TRY TO SOLVE PAY PROBLEM

State Conference for Feb. 14 Called to Consider Minimum Salary of $75 a Month.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 2.—S. A. Baker, State Superintendent of Schools, has issued a call for a conference of school boards to meet here Feb. 14, in an effort to solve the teacher salary problem and to plan for the betterment of public education in Missouri generally. Among the questions which Baker asks the school boards to confer on are the following:

1. The adoption of a constitutional amendment permitting rural schools to vote a tax for school purposes of $1 on their $100 valuation.

2. A constitutional amendment creating a special school tax of from 20 to 25 cents on the $100 valuation.

3. Larger school limits which will give high school facilities to every boy and girl in the State closer supervision and a wider interest in community development.

4. A physical training law.

5. Amending the State aid law so that no district can receive State aid unless it has voted its full limit of school levy.

6. A minimum wage law under which the poorest paid teachers in the State would be paid not less than $75 a month.

Baker says that school districts which have voted the limit of taxation and still have not sufficient funds to pay their teachers properly may find relief under section 10797 R. S., 1909, as amended by the last Legislature, which authorizes them to vote a building and repair tax. After the purpose for which the levy was made has been accomplished, the remainder is transferred to the incidental fund.

This can be so arranged, Baker says, as to permit school boards filing their estimates with County Clerks to include in the "teachers' fund" all of the regular levy, made under section 10791, for "teachers and incidentals."

INVEST in St. Louis

The best place on earth for St. Louis people to invest their savings and their surplus capital is in St. Louis. This city and its outlying industrial district are growing rapidly and solidly.

Union Electric is St. Louis' basic industry. All other St. Louis and St. Louis district industries are Union Electric's customers. Union Electric's growth is the surest index to St. Louis' industrial prosperity. Here are figures that tell the wonderful story of St. Louis' gains during recent years, and today:

1: Union Electric's power capacity in 1912 was 76,000 kilowatts; in midsummer, 1920, it will be 171,236 kilowatts.

2: Union Electric's new and additional power sales contracted during 1919 totaled 55,400 kilowatts; during the first three weeks of January, 1920, 4600 kilowatts.

3: Union Electric's customers on December 31, 1915, totaled 71,470; on December 31, 1919, 112,484—a gain of 41,014 in four years, or over 10,000 a year.

Union Electric invites all of its 112,484 customers to become partners in this business—to help finance its growth and share its dividends. For this purpose $1,000,000 of 7 per cent preferred stock has been issued, with the State's approval, and is being sold.

PRICE: $100 a share for cash; $102 on a ten-payment plan, under which buyers draw 5 per cent interest on installment payments, and can withdraw all payments, WITH INTEREST, any time before final installment is paid.

DIVIDEND: $7 a year, payable $1.75 every three months on each share.

SALES OFFICES: Room 201 Union Electric Building, 12th and Locust Streets, St. Louis, and Union Electric's offices in Franklin, Jefferson, Perry, St. Charles and St. Louis counties.

Sale of Oriental Rugs

Continues—$25,000.00 Worth in the Collection

At Prices Averaging 1/3 Less Than Today's Replacement Value

Through a fortunate arrangement with an importer we were able to secure $25,000.00 worth of Oriental Rugs, consisting of Sarouk, Serapi, Saracen, Chinese, Shiraz, Mosoul, Cabistan and Mahal Rugs, which were imported a long time ago. Included in the assortment is almost every size that you would desire, from the small mat size to the large room size, at prices ranging from $24.50 to $2065.00.

This is the most extensive collection that we have offered for sale in recent years. Due to the war there have not been many rugs coming over within the last few years, and these rugs have traveled many thousands of miles to reach St. Louis for this event. We consider this a most unusual opportunity and do not hesitate to recommend to our customers to buy liberally from this assortment.

February Sale of Infants' Wear

Continues—Offering for Tomorrow a Special Lot of Sample Dresses

(For Little Tots Up to 4 Years)

At a Saving of About 1/3

These dainty, fairy-like little Frocks are fashioned of the sheer fabrics which mothers like best for the little tot's Spring and Summer Frocks—dotted Swiss, voile, batiste, organdie and nainsook. There are scores of adorable styles to select from—pretty Frocks smocked, embroidered and lace-trimmed. They are carefully made and finished, just as baby's dresses should be, and when so many little dresses are needed, this offers a noteworthy opportunity to effect savings. There are various groups at

SAYS MIXED MARRIAGES LEAD TO INFIDELITY

All Religion Often Is Lost in Such Unions Archbishop Glennon Says in Sermon.

"Preparation for Marriage," was the subject of Archbishop Glennon's monthly sermon at the New Cathedral yesterday. He said that the Catholic Church's opposition to mixed marriages is not due to narrowness or a fear that Catholics will adopt other faiths, but to the fact that both parties to such marriages usually lose all religion, their children, observing the contradiction in their parents' beliefs, quickly conclude that "one is as good as another, and that neither amounts to much."

The church's requirement that all marriages be proclaimed in advance is due to the sensible reason that a transaction of such importance should be carefully considered, and an opportunity given for possible objections to be made known, he said.

Church Opposes Haste. "Because the church teaches that the bonds of a valid marriage may be broken only by death, she is solicitous about all that pertains to the marriage ceremony," he said. "For instance, as all experience proves, a hastily contracted marriage is not conducive to permanency, hence the church is opposed to such a marriage. Equally so the marriage secretly entered into is ordinarily inadvisable, and so the church advises against it. It is to minimize these evils, if not entirely to overcome them, as well as for other grave and sufficient reasons that the church has instituted as preliminary to the marriage ceremony the proclamation of the banns. On three successive Sundays or holy days of obligation at some public function in the church the names of those intending marriage are announced.

"Although this law is solemnly inaugurated and obtains in the entire Catholic world, it is found fault with by many, and even by Catholics. One says it is unnecessary; and another that it is meaningless; and yet another that it is an uncalled-for restriction on the liberty and denial of the rights of our people.

"Yet it will be found that the church, with the experience of the ages, has in this, as in all her matrimonial legislation, not alone good reason in support of her position, but also has in mind the welfare of the married couple. If marriage be for life, surely the couple ought to give the thought and time to it that such an important contract demands.

Marriage a Life's Decision. "Before buying a house you have to get a certificate of title, and inquire concerning the taxes on it, and the condition in which it is, and the neighborhood; and finally after due deliberation, you sign the contract. The purchase of a house, which might be sold the next day, is certainly not as important as a life's decision, with, in fact, the wealth and work, the happiness or misery of two human beings thereby decided.

"If the young couple have decided to marry, and are free to marry, there is ordinarily no reason why they should make of the marriage an escapade and a riot; but there is, however, reason that they should be willing to say to all the world that they care to know, that such is their intention, and that it is honorable and above reproach.

"If there be a reason sufficiently grave, why the marriage banns should not be proclaimed—because of conflicting business—sickness—deaths in the family, it is easy by seeing the parish priest, who in these matters must respect their confidence, to obtain the necessary dispensation from the banns, and the incidental publicity attached.

"It is astonishing how little most people know of the rules of the church, and how little respect they have for them; especially in regard to marriage. There are not a few, who casting aside the church's law, rush into marriage before some magistrate, who is there as a civil agent, expecting to force the church thereby to afterwards validate and bless that marriage. The method, to say the least, is disingenuous, irreverent, sinful, and in the sequel, leads often to tragic results. After the war there were many matrimonial tragedies resultant, and many, I fear still to result. Off to the squire with the man or woman recently divorced, the marriage is kept secret until they think it advisable to return to the church; and then an appeal to the church authority, who is unfortunately compelled to say, according to the church's law, there is no marriage, and no dispensation to marry one with a living husband or wife; with the result that they have to elect between their partner and their own souls.

Opposed Pagan Marriages. "In speaking of the proclamation of the banns, and the church, and the marriage ceremony, I am referring, of course, to marriage between Catholics. There is the other which forms a class unto itself—the marriage of the Catholic with the non-Catholic. The church has been opposed to such marriages; and the impediment created, as some think, is not directed against the non-Catholics of today. It was there from the beginning. In the early centuries the church prohibited the marriage of the Christian with the pagan. That impediment is the impediment of "disparity of worship," which exists between the Catholic and the unbaptized person; and a similar impediment called "mixed religion" existing between the Catholic and the one baptized, but not with Catholic baptism. There are some again, even amongst our Catholics, who consider these impediments as unreasonable and unfair. They think they see in it the fears of the church that her children will thereby renounce her faith. They see a narrowness of views which ill-becomes the church. Continued on Next Page

WIDENER BRIDE AND HUSBAND AT ASHEVILLE

Hoping Philadelphia Pair, Wed at Knoxville, Will Play Golf and Tramp.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
ASHEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 2.—Hoping from Philadelphia Thursday evening, arriving at Knoxville Saturday morning, Miss Josephine (FID) Widener, 17 years old, and Carter H. Leidy were married at noon Saturday in the Tennessee city. They arrived here Saturday night and will spend several weeks at the Grove Park Inn.

At Knoxville they readily received a marriage license. The Rev. Dr. William Wiltaker, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony in his church and in the presence of the required witnesses only. Leidy said last night that both he and his bride were charmed with Asheville. They will spend their time here golfing, tramping in the mountains near by and horseback riding. No one knew of their leaving Philadelphia, he said, until several hours after they had gone and no one accompanied them on the trip. A debut party that was to have been given for Miss Widener Friday night was called off when it was learned that the pair had eloped. The elopement came when Leidy was not invited to the party.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 2.—Carter Leidy and FID Widener called in person at the office of County Clerk Edington Saturday and obtained their marriage license. Leidy tendered a $50 bill from a large roll to pay the $3.50 license fee.

DEATH BY TRUCK ACCIDENT

Testimony Shows Boy, 9, Ran in Front of Machine.

A coroner's verdict of accident was returned today in the death of Karl W. J. Schulz, 9-year-old son of W. J. Schulz of 1432 Prairie avenue, who was killed by an automobile truck at Twentieth street and Parlier avenue at 5:15 p. m. Friday.

The truck belonged to the Charles Haber Lumber Co., 3732 North Broadway and was driven by Frank D. Eden. Testimony showed the boy ran in front of the truck.

ARCHBISHOP SAYS MIXED MARRIAGES LEAD TO INFIDELITY

Christ. But these are only, after all, the opinions of the passing crowd—of the people who do not think, or if they do, they think in terms purely secular—who consider that social position is more important than their soul's salvation—who are quite willing to see the spiritual downfall of their children if only it be, according to the world's standard, brilliantly executed.

"The church is opposed to the mixed marriage—not because we regard the non-Catholic as inferior or unworthy; but because, first, in its very inception a mixed marriage predicates disunion rather than union; and that disunion affects the very foundations of marriage life and of civilization. Young people may regard it as of no significance. In reality it is a touching ultimate truth of vast importance. Such questions, for instance, as the training of children—the conservation of life—the preservation of the marriage bond, are principles that are not viewed alike, nor held equally by the Catholic and the non-Catholic. Consequently, if in the mixed marriage, both parties persist in maintaining their own views, it is almost impossible for peace or harmony to be there.

"If I am advised that in many instances the mixed marriage is not only productive of happiness, but is in every sense an ideal union, I have only to say that exceptions prove the rule; and the rule is, as the church knows from sad and long experience, the destruction of faith, and of the home and happiness. For of those who are happy we hear much; but of the many who fall, and their name is legion, we know only of the beginnings of the tragedy, and after that not at all.

Says Infidelity Results.
"Let me say also that the church's opposition to mixed marriages is not because of any narrowness, or fear that our Catholic people will thereby be drawn into the non-Catholic churches, the truth is that in such a marriage both Catholic and non-Catholic resort usually to a common ground where all can meet, and that is infidelity; or if the parents for a while preserve their individual faith, the children watching the contradictory views are quick to conclude that one is just as good as the other, and that neither amounts to much.

"Ordinarily also the young people intending marriage should have their parents' consent and blessing. I say ordinarily, because there may be exceptional cases where parents may be unreasonable, and where their unreasonable attitude may only after grave reflection, be disregarded.

"The custom obtains in many countries in Europe for the parents to practically arrange for the marriage of their children. They figure as chief actors therein. So the marriage bond appears to be commercialized, and freedom of choice and consent is denied the participants.

"In America we have gone to the opposite extreme, where the young people regard themselves as quite competent to decide, and solely responsible for the marriage they enter into; and any interference or advice even from parents is resented as an intrusion.

"Possibly the middle ground between them is the one to be advised. The question of choice, selection, should be left, it is true, to the young people; but their best friends and their truest advisers should be their parents, whose consent and blessing they should ask. It is thus and only thus, namely, by the wise selection, by the deliberate preparation, with the parental consent and blessing that the married couple will find peace, stability and happiness."

THREE PERSONS FOUND DEAD IN BED IN DIFFERENT HOMES

One Woman Had Been Treating Herself for Cold—Another Was Visitor From Beaver, Mo.

Three persons were found dead in bed yesterday.

Mrs. Lena Porter, 39 years old, of 4110A Pennsylvania avenue, was found dead in bed at her home at 1 p. m., a short time after she lay down for a nap. Relatives told the police Mrs. Porter had contracted a severe cold a few days ago and had been treating herself with home remedies.

Mrs. Henrietta Walton, 28, Beaver, Mo., was found dead in bed at the home of R. E. Anderson, 5972 Highland avenue, at 7 a. m., when members of the family sought to arouse her for breakfast. Mrs. Walton, the police were told, came here last week to have an X-ray picture taken of her neck after it had given her trouble following an operation eight months ago for goiter.

Samuel Finkelstein, 70, of 1120 North Sixteenth street, was found dead in bed at his home at 11 a. m., a short time after he had complained of pains in the chest and heart.

KENTUCKY GIRL BRIDE OF DAVISON OBEAR

Ceremony Was Performed Friday Night at Home of Her Sister Here.

A WEDDING of interest took place Friday evening, when Miss Henrietta Best, daughter of Samuel Thomas Best of Louisville, Ky., became the bride of Davison Obear, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Obear, 1822 Belt avenue. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Page, 5500 Cabanne avenue, the Rev. E. Combie Smith of the Maple Avenue Methodist Church officiating in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride's brother, Clay Best of Clarkdale, Miss., gave her away. Harold T. Hungerford served as best man and was the only attendant. A small reception followed the ceremony after which the couple departed for the East on their honeymoon.

The bride was graduated from a girls' school in Louisville and has traveled quite extensively. Mr. Obear is well known as a tennis player, having won several state and county tournaments. He was graduated from Principia School in 1911. Mr. and Mrs. Obear will be at home after March 1 at the "Lodge."

Social Items

Mrs. H. S. Hutchins of 5052 Raymond avenue entertained with a tea this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in honor of her daughter, Miss Marion Hutchins, whose engagement to Charles P. Spalding, son of George Spalding of 6127 Pershing avenue, was announced informally some time ago.

VISITOR WHO IS BEING MUCH ENTERTAINED

Miss Ebbie Peterson

The decorations were Columbia roses and ferns. Serving were Misses Edith Hanlon, Harriet Logan, Isabel Runk, Lucille Spalding and Herminie Eowans.

The St. Louis Woman's Club has canceled the entertainment scheduled for Thursday on account of the influenza.

Miss Josephine M. Peniston of 470 Big Bend road, Webster Groves, has as her guest Miss Ebbie G. Peterson of Chicago. Several informal affairs have been given in Miss Peterson's honor, and her hostess is arranging a luncheon and theater party for her next week.

The Apollo Club will give its second concert of the season Feb. 11 at the Odeon, assisted by the Zoellner Quartet and Warren Procter, tenor of the Chicago Grand Opera Company.

The Harmony Literary Club has postponed its reciprocity meeting at Hotel Statler Friday.

Members of the Margaret A. E. McLure Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, are manifesting keen interest in the Valentine Ball which they will give at the Buckingham Hotel on the evening of Feb. 14. Several members of the social set are forming parties for the occasion, as the funds will be used to educate a girl in journalism at the University of Missouri. The following committees have been appointed:

COMEDY HOLDS SCREEN AT LOCAL THEATERS

Taylor Holmes, Earle Williams, Marguerite Clark and Anita Stewart the Stars.

Most amusing comedy is "Nothing But the Truth," with Taylor Holmes in the leading role, which opened yesterday at the Kings, New Grand, Florissant, Shenandoah and Junia's theaters and goes on today at the Lindell. Holmes has the part of Bob Bennett, who makes a wager with three friends at a country club that he will tell the truth and nothing but the truth to everyone with whom he comes in contact for the period of one week. The stake is $30,000. Complications start when he is invited to a house party where several suspicious wives, including those of the men with whom he made the wager, ask him pointed questions about the conduct of their husbands. Things grow worse when Bob is hooked to marry an heiress, but frankly tells what he thinks of marriage for money, and when he is kidnapped by a "baby vamp," who mistakes him for a "gentleman burglar." To save him from the vamp his friends have him taken to an asylum. He sticks to the truth, overcomes his troubles and wins the $30,000.

Follows Stage Version. "The Fortune Hunter," starring Earle Williams, the feature on this week's program at the Liberty, is a faithful reproduction of the stage comedy success. Action having been the predominating note in the spoken version, there is nothing missed in the screen adaptation. The story is that of a college graduate, who having made a failure of several business ventures, sets out to capture an heiress. He lands in a small town and makes love to a banker's daughter, but another girl crosses his path. She is the daughter of a struggling inventor.

Complications arise which are made all the harder by reason of the fact that the seeker of wealth has a wager which binds him to strict regulations of conduct. Just when things look their worst, the unexpected happens and all ends happily.

"The Gay Old Dog," Mrs. Sidney Drew's story of the bachelor, will be an added attraction tonight and the rest of the week. A Sunshine comedy and a Fox news picture make up the rest of the bill.

"Mind the Paint Girl," which was one of Billie Burke's stage successes, opened for the week at the New Grand Central yesterday with Anita Stewart in the title role. This is a "nice" comedy, with a "cute" heroine who starts out as a shopgirl and has ambitions to be an opera singer, or at least a musical comedy star. Her ambition is rewarded in part when she becomes a chorus girl and her fortune is made when a stage hand accidentally spills a bucket of paint. This is an inspiration. She suggests that a song "Mind the Paint" might make a hit. The song is written and behold, it is found that in all the field of musical comedy there is no one who can sing it so well as she. The play has a love motive, too, and in one scene a nobleman and an army Captain battle for her affections.

Marguerite Clark, in "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" opened the week at the West End Lyric, whose program also includes a number of other interesting attractions. Miss Clarke has one of those impulsive and irresponsible roles in which she is at her best. There is a rumor that the heroine has married Jimmie Keppel, a British aristocrat of great wealth. The next morning she is found asleep in Keppel's apartment. Some of his women relatives inopportunely visit the apartment and she complicates matters by assuring them that she and Jimmie are not married. This leads to many complications, but in the end she explains her presence in the apartment to everyone's satisfaction.

Norma Talmadge in "A Daughter of Two Worlds" is at the Pershing, Douglas McLean and Doris May in "What's Your Husband Doing?" at the Royal, and Griffith's "The Great-est Question" at the Central.

GASOLINE ADVANCES TO 25 CENTS

Increase Effective at Standard and Pierce Filling Stations.

Gasoline advanced 1 cent a gallon today, from 24 to 25 cents, at all filling stations controlled by the Standard Oil Co. and the Pierce Oil Corporation. Until Jan. 16 it had been 23 cents. The increase is attributed to an advance in the price of crude oil. Gasoline in large quantities, delivered from wagons, was quoted at 22.7 cents a gallon. The increase in the price of gasoline over that of a year ago is 4.6 cents. Gasoline at filling stations in January of last year sold for 20.4 cents.

P. G. LINCHY, SON-IN-LAW OF COL. ED. BUTLER, DIES

Insurance Man Had Been Ill for Week—His Son Inherited $1,000,000 Year Ago.

Peter G. Linchey, 57 years old, son-in-law of Col. Ed Butler, died at St. John's Hospital last night from kidney trouble, following an illness of a week. He was the father of Edmund J. Linchey, now residing at 68 Vandeventer place, who inherited about $1,000,000 in 1917 from the estate of his grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Butler, widow of the former Democratic boss.

The elder Linchey married Col. Butler's daughter, Anastasia Butler, about 27 years ago. Mrs. Linchey died when their only child, Edmund, was about 2 years old. Linchey at one time was superintendent of the Northern Central Street Railway, a horse-car line. Several years after his marriage he became secretary of the Edward Butler & Son Horseshoeing Co. Later he was superintendent of the money order department of the local postoffice. Recently he was an agent for an insurance company and resided at the Warwick Hotel.

In addition to his son, Linchey is survived by two brothers, Hugh T. A. Linchey of 5353 Maple avenue, and Edward J. Linchey of 5335 Eitzel avenue.

WILHELM TO GIVE HOSPITAL

Expects to Present Institution to Amerongen.

By the Associated Press. AMERONGEN, Feb. 2.—The former German Emperor expects to present to Amerongen a small hospital in remembrance of his stay here. Preliminary construction of the hospital is under way on ground donated by Count von Bentinck. It was the former Emperor's interest in the survey for this structure that occasioned rumors that a house was being built at Amerongen for one of his sons.

Thousands of women have answered this question by finding out what BlueBird, with a laundress, would do for them, and not one of them would ever think of giving up their

BlueBird

ELECTRIC CLOTHES WASHER

They know now that with BlueBird the laundress can get the clothes washed in less than half the time it took the old way.

They know all the clothes washed the BlueBird way will last five times longer than when rubbed against a washboard.

They know that BlueBird's power wringer wrings the clothes so thoroughly that the first tub is dry and ready for ironing by the time the last tub is washed, so that the laundress can get much more done.

They know that the laundress who has once washed with BlueBird will always come to the home that has a BlueBird, because she never would go back again to the needlessly hard work of rubbing over a tub.

BlueBird will begin saving you more than its cost, from the first day that you use it. Find out all about it today. Phone or call and arrange for a

To Overcome Winter
Complexion Troubles

If the chill air causes your skin to dry and scale or become unduly red or spotted, before you go to bed spread a thin layer of ordinary mercerized wash over your entire face. Remove next morning with warm water. This is the ideal complexion treatment for the winter. The wash gently absorbs the dead particles of surface skin, so gradually there's no discomfort. This gives the underlying skin a chance to breathe and to show itself. In a week or so the new and younger skin is wholly in evidence and you have a really matchless complexion. Naturally all its defects disappear with the discarded cuticle—as chaps, roughness, blotches, pimples, freckles, blackheads. Usually an ounce of mercerized wash, procurable at any drug store, is enough to renovate even the worst complexion.

ROME ARTIST ACCUSED OF MURDERING WIFE

Peruvian Who Eloped With
Proprietor of Art Gallery
Is Arrested.

By the Associated Press.
ROME, Feb. 2.—Louis Ignatius Mesones, a Peruvian painter, and son of Dr. Emanuel Mesones, former secretary at the Peruvian legation in this city, is under arrest here on a charge of having murdered his wife. The case has excited keen interest in all ranks of Roman society. Mesones eloped in 1917 with a daughter of Attilio Simonetti, proprietor of one of the best known art galleries in Rome and a commander in the Order of the Crown of Italy. The parents of the girl objected to the marriage, but after the elopement recognized it. It is asserted that Mesones wife eloped with him and that in January, 1918, the latter disappeared. Mesones explaining she had gone to Peru. Later he is said to have announced the ship in which she had sailed had sunk and that Signora Mesones had been drowned. This story was accepted by the wife's parents, who made no investigation and the matter remained in that status until recently when a night watchman overheard a conversation between two men who said Mesones' wife had been murdered. They said, it is asserted, that her body was "palmed off" as that of one Maria Rotellini, who on Jan. 4, 1918, was found dead on the Tiber embankment. By her side was a revolver and in one of her pockets was a letter addressed to relatives in Udine. At that time, Austrian forces occupied Udine and it was impossible to conduct an inquiry among her supposed relatives there. The watchman went to the morgue, obtained pictures of the suicide and showed them to Signor Simonetti, who recognized them as likenesses of his daughter. Investigation at hotels mentioned in the letter found on the person of the name of Rotellini had actually stopped at them and now the police are trying to trace this woman. It has been ascertained no passport was issued to Signora Mesones, so she could not have sailed for Peru. When arrested, Mesones said he did not remember the name of the ship on which his wife sailed, and declared he had not reported the vessel had been lost at sea.

SAYS CHURCHES SEEK TO
'CONVERT' IN AMERICANIZATION

Habbi Addressing Convention at Philadelphia Assails "Cannon-Flage of Ulterior Purpose."
By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—Protestant denominations accused of attempting to convert Jews under the guise of Americanization were criticized here today by Rabbi Charles I. Hoffman of Newark, N. J., who addressed the eighth annual convention of the United Synagogue of America. "The various sects of Protestant Christianity," he said, "have vied with each other in promoting this proselytizing, and large sums have been collected under various designations and devoted to this. The present form generally pursued may be characterized under the name of welfare work. Sometimes also it is termed Americanization. Under this camouflage it is thought its real underlying ulterior purpose may escape detection." "The lust of conquest whether of territory, power or wealth, has ever drowned the laws of reason and of humanity, and the record of Christian Church, especially in its futile efforts to overthrow Judaism, is one which cannot be viewed without horror."

BANK PRESIDENT MAY LOSE
TROUSERS THROUGH DRY LAW

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—The United States District Court will be asked to decide whether the trousers of Charles N. Thomas, Chicago bank president, are a "vehicle" and, if they are, whether they should be confiscated by the Government and sold at auction. Thomas was arrested Saturday night in a cabaret when he produced a bottle of liquor from his hip pocket and concocted highballs for himself and three companions. Federal prohibition agents who made the arrest maintain the use of the hip pocket to carry liquor makes Thomas' trousers a vehicle within the meaning of the dry law and that the garment is subject to seizure and sale.

Thomas, who refused bail and has been in jail since Saturday night, will be taken before a United States Commissioner today. He is president of the Commonwealth Trust and Security Co. Decision in the case will affect carriers of hip pocket flasks throughout the country.

INQUIRY INTO DEATH OF SIX

Poisoning of Family in New York Was Attributed to Ripe Olives.
By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—A grand jury investigation of the deaths of Paul Delbene, his wife, two brothers and two sons from poisoning caused by ripe olives was ordered today. The wholesale and retail dealers who handled the olives and the doctor who treated the victims before they were removed to a hospital will be summoned Friday.

4870-MILE AIR RACE TO ALASKA PLANNED

Route to Lie Over U. S. Territory From New York to North Gate, N. D.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Tentative plans for a transcontinental air race this year, between New York and Nome, Alaska, a distance of 4870 miles, were announced here last night by the American Flying Club, which is co-operating with the training and operations group of the army air service in the project. The proposed race will be held under the same rules and handicap plans as the race between New York and San Francisco last year.
From Minneapolis to North Dakota, a distance of 1073 miles, the route will lie over United States territory. At North Gate, N. D., the course crosses the international border into Saskatchewan, Canada, and continues 1300 miles across the Dominion to Fort Egbert, on the Alaskan border.
In Canada the course lies along the new Grand Trunk-Pacific Railroad running from Edmonton, Alberta, to Prince Rupert, British Columbia. At Hazelton, B. C., the proposed route branches north between the coast range and the Rocky Mountains, following the valleys which are the most populated. This route is covered by the only telegraph line and is the most favorable from the supply point of view.
In Alaska the route runs from Fort Yukon and to Fairbanks by way of Fort Gibbon, thence to Nulato and Nome.
Compulsory stops will be arranged at an average of every 150 miles. Only qualified aviators will be allowed to enter and their machines will be examined at each stop. Detail plans will be announced later.

SOCIETY WOMAN IN CHICAGO RECOVERING FROM WOUND

Pistol Bullet Penetrated Left Lung—Said to Have Fired Shot Accidentally.
By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—Mrs. Richard S. Folsom, well known in society, and wife of a former city corporation counsel, is reported to be recovering from the effects of a bullet wound received in her home last Friday. Her husband yesterday said it was an accident. Chief of Police Garrity, who made a personal investigation, also asserted he was convinced the shooting was accidental.
The wound was received by Mrs. Folsom shortly after she had returned home from an automobile show with her husband and friends. It was reported that her father, Gen. George M. Moulton, and Folsom were in the house at the time and heard the shot, soon after Mrs. Folsom had retired to her room. Mrs. Folsom was taken to the hospital in a private ambulance. The matter was not reported to the police in the regular way. Moulton called Chief Garrity, who made a personal investigation.
Dr. Emanuel Friend, the attending physician, said yesterday Mrs. Folsom was resting. A steel jacketed bullet penetrated her left lung and passed out of her back, he said. Mrs. Folsom was said to be recovering from influenza at the time of the accident.

STREET CAR CONDUCTOR SAYS HE SAW NEGRO SHOOT YOUTH

Ray Dee Asserts Wounding of James Carr Followed Quarrel in Street.
Ray Dee of 4611 Page boulevard, a Wellston line street car conductor, yesterday gave the police information which threw new light on the shooting of James Carr, 20 years old, of 4450 Garfield avenue, who was shot in the abdomen at Garrison and Easton avenues at 12:30 a. m. Saturday and is in a serious condition at the city hospital.
Though Carr said after the shooting that he believed a negro shot him, the police had believed it was a gang shooting.
Dee said his car, westbound, was just pulling away from the corner where the shooting occurred when he saw two white men and two negroes quarreling in the street and saw one of the negroes shoot one of the white men. Later, he said, he was told the negroes boarded the car behind him and rode to Goode avenue.
Bert Hyde, 3961 Lucky street, and Philip Brennan, 3113 Thomas street, who had been with Carr earlier in the evening and who had been arrested were released on common law bonds yesterday.

GRAND-LEADER

An Exposition and Sale of Oriental

ARTWARES AND CURIOS

From the House of Arthur and Bond, Yokohama

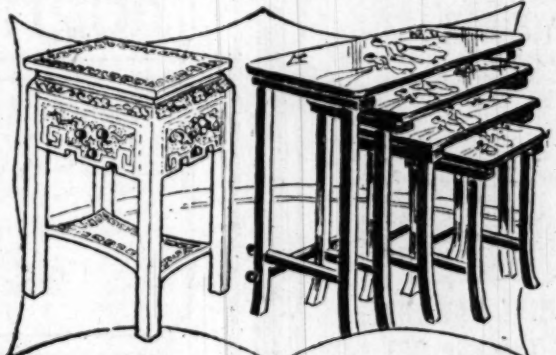

A Golden Goddess

A Chinese Goddess of solid gold, whose delicately carved face and hands are of creamy ivory, is crowned with precious jewels. She was among the treasures of the former Czar of Russia's Winter Palace and was stolen from there, to be hidden, shown, then hidden again, until she came into our possession. Her diadem and necklace are of real emeralds, garnets, rubies, pearls and diamonds and turquoise. A marvel of flawless workmanship is this inscrutable Goddess of Gold, whose delicate loveliness is a fine exponent of Oriental art. The price is special, $3500

Cinabar Vases, Special, $150 Pair

Valuable to the collector and to the one who admires Oriental art is this pair of Red Cinabar Vases, whose intricate carving is done by hand. The carving is entirely Oriental in motif. Priced special, $150 for the pair. The very small Snuff Bottle is also of carved red cinabar, the stopper is jade. $45. The real Amber Vases are oddly carved and the soft, yellow shade contrasts effectively with the small carved black teakwood stands. Price, $120 pair.

Lacquer Teapots Special, $22.50 Set

Four little tables, each smaller than the other, so that they slip one under the other, are charming for serving tea. They are of lacquer, decorated and highly polished.

Hinoki Carved Stands Special, $19.50

Hand-carved Wood Stands, square or round, are in black or dark brown finish and are suitable for statuary or vases.

Real Jade Vases

Hand-carved pieces of white jade have a soft luster that goes well with the black teakwood stands on which they are placed. The carving is beautiful. The prices are $100 to $125 and represent special values.

Real Jade Kora Bowl

This is a true antique—it is hand carved of white jade and mounted on teakwood. The price is special, $250

A REMARKABLE purchase—an even more remarkable sale—is this one the Oriental Bazaar is holding this week. Mr. Ruby, of Chicago, a connoisseur on Oriental Art, is here during this occasion. The purchase of thousands of beautiful Oriental Curios and Artwares from Arthur and Bond gives the Oriental Bazaar an opportunity to present an exposition and sale unequalled in its number of rare Art objects, and the very unusual price at which each piece is marked. We have sketched and described a few of the more unusual pieces—the great quantities make it impossible to list every item. Especially interesting are

Mandarin Skirts, $10

The finest needlework is to be seen on these beautiful embroidered Skirts, rich in color and gorgeous in pattern. There are brocade and applique effects, combined with the embroidery. They fit themselves to a number of uses.

Mandarin Coats, $25

Short or long Coats, beautifully embroidered, make handsome negligees or house coats. Others are priced to $50.

Buddhas and Goddesses

Collected from all of the Far Eastern countries are scores of odd Buddhas and Goddesses. Endowed with speech, they could tell fascinating stories of a past full of mystical beliefs and odd forms of worship. In the old belief a Buddha was a man who had toiled through successive stages of existence to perfect holiness—the word means "Awake," "Enlightened." These figures, so incomprehensible to us, are interesting in their designs and make attractive pieces for decoration. The prices vary, $10 to $250

Cloisnone Floor Lamps, Special, $49.50

Lamps with carved bronze bases or with antique cloisnone combined with the bronze are distinctive for the library or living room.

Japanese Screens, Special, $15

Finely embroidered or painted by hand, with trailing flowers and fascinating birds, these Japanese Screens are unusually beautiful. These are four-panel folding Screens, five feet high—useful in a score of ways, and very special at $15. Others are priced up to $25

Carved Panel, Special, $59 Each

Of wood carved into a Panel. These were used to decorate the temples of Japan, and during the changes of the past years were torn down. They are over 100 years old and are handsome in their carving. Some are of sandalwood. Others are dipped in gold and framed in red frames, $15 to $25

Satsuma Potteries

Among the interesting pieces in this exposition is the Satsuma Pottery. These are on gold foundations elaborately decorated. There are two kinds of Satsuma, the crackled ware and this highly decorated Satsuma. Both are valuable. The hundreds of pieces to be had include boxes and holders and trays of every description. Prices are very special, $2.50 to $35

Japanese Tea Set

A modern Satsuma Tea Set is in dark blue, decorated in gold, consists of six cups and saucers, a teapot, a sugar and a creamer. Price, $22.50

Japanese Bronzes

Over 1000 years ago the artists of Japan were creating artistic pieces in bronze. The work in metal has gone on for ages and the pieces produced are extraordinary interpretations of animal life. The Oriental Bazaar is showing a remarkable collection—one of the distinctive pieces is two lions in combat. The price is special, $100. All other pieces are also specially priced.

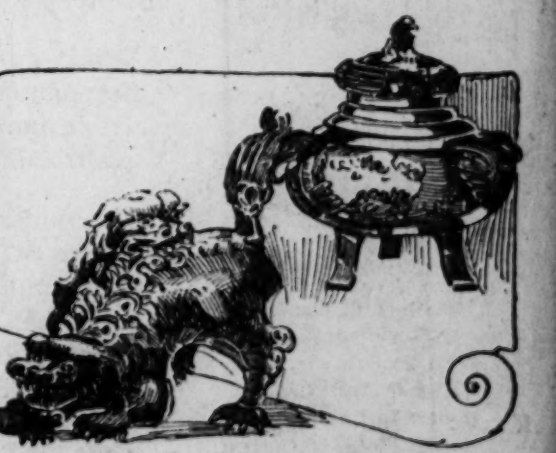

Bronze Book Ends

Temples, pagodas, quaint animal figures done in bronze, make splendid Book Ends. The price is special, $15 pair

Cloisnone Ware

In this ware the marvelous patience, the painstaking skill and the wonderful art of the Japanese craftsman is at its best. Hundreds of finely made pieces are in our collection—small boxes, vases, holders and even vases large enough for table lamps are here. Cloisnone is a species of mosaic, whose foundation is metal on which a design in a fine network of copper or brass is filled in with enamel of various colorings. The finished pieces are exquisite. Special prices vary from $3.50 to $35. The lamp pictured is $55.

Incense Burners

The burning of sweetly perfumed incense associates itself at once with Japan. But a pleasant custom travels far, and in America Incense Burners and Incense are well liked. Quaint, artistic, unusual little holders of bronze, Korean brass and cloisnone are priced $2 to $55. These are all specially priced and represent extremely good values. 50-FOOT FALL KILLS AGE WHEN DOWNED 12 GERMAN PLANES

Capt. Field E. Kindley Dies at Kelly Field While Rehearsing Exhibition in Honor of Gen. Pershing.

WINNER OF HONORS OF THREE COUNTRIES

Most Thrilling Encounter Was That in Which Seven American Planes Fought 25 of Enemy's.

By the Associated Press.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 2.—Capt. Field E. Kindley, American ace and commander of the Ninety-fourth Squadron, was killed instantly in aerial maneuvers at Kelly Field No. 2 here yesterday.

The accident occurred while a group of planes were in practice formation, preparing for an exhibition scheduled in honor of Gen. Pershing's visit here Tuesday. Capt. Kindley's machine fell when he was about 50 feet above the ground. He was crushed and burned.

Capt. Kindley, whose home was in Gravette, Ark., was officially credited with the destruction of 12 enemy planes. He had won the Distinguished Service Cross, the British Flying Cross and the Croix de Guerre.

Capt. Kindley went overseas as an aviator cadet in September, 1917, and got into action May 22, 1918, in Flanders, where he shot down five German planes. He fought 27 battles near Cambrai and Amiens as a squadron flight leader. One of the most thrilling of these, he said, occurred on Sept. 28, near the Canal du Nord, after he had been transferred from the British squadron to the 14th American pursuit squadron. He started out with three other fliers in single seater planes and at an altitude of 5000 feet, near the German lines, the four aviators discovered that another American pursuit squadron was being attacked by 25 German machines. The quartet flew to their comrades' aid. The flight lasted seven minutes, during which one of the Americans was shot down. Capt. Kindley's machine was hit 47 times.

FEDERAL AGENTS SEEK STILL THAT PRODUCED RAISIN WHISKY

Mash, Wine and Alcohol Found by Police in Raid in Franklin Avenue.

Three barrels containing 160 gallons of raisin mash, a barrel of wine, and three jugs and a bottle of alcohol were found by the police in a raid on a third story suite of rooms occupied by four Austrians at 2224 Franklin avenue last night. The men admitted making "raisin whiskey" from the mash, but said it was cooked elsewhere. They are being questioned by Federal authorities who wish to find the still.

The prisoners registered as Michael Markovich, 55 years old; Maris Markovic, 49; Joseph Laurar, 36, and Michael Barbara, 36. The first two were asleep in two of four beds in one of the rooms when the police made the raid. Laurar admitted that he had received information that home-made whiskey was being sold in the neighborhood. The men denied making any sales and said there was only enough for their own use.

MRS. KATHERINE FOY, 78, DIES AT HER HOME FROM PNEUMONIA

Widow of Dr. Joseph Foy, Former Clergyman and Principal of Old Shields School.

Mrs. Katherine Foy, 78 years old, widow of Dr. Joseph Foy, former clergyman and principal of the Old Shields School, now the Patrick Henry School, died at her home, 4464 McPherson avenue, at 4 a. m. today from pneumonia. Dr. Foy, who was widely known as an educator and who bore a marked resemblance to Andrew Carnegie, died in March, 1917.

Mrs. Foy had resided with a friend, Mrs. Margaret Keating, at the McPherson avenue address since the death of her husband. Dr. Foy was pastor of the Old Central Christian Church here in 1865. Later he became a clergyman in the Protestant Episcopal Church and a short time later he came to St. Louis, where he was pastor of the Catholic faith. When the fact of his resemblance to Carnegie became known the latter placed Dr. Foy on his pension list with a pension of $50 a month.

Mrs. Foy was survived by two daughters, Mrs. Maude M. Uhl, of Sacramento, Cal., and Mrs. Scott Sydney of Los Angeles, Cal., and an adopted son, Gilbert Foy, also of Los Angeles. The funeral will be held from undertaking parlors at 4715 McPherson avenue, at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday. Services will be held at the New Cathedral. Burial will be in Calvary cemetery.

DEATH RATE IN UNITED STATES IN 1918 HIGHEST IN HISTORY

18 Per 1000 Died in Registration Area of 30 States and 27 Cities—Influenza Big Factor.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The death rate in the United States for 1918 was the highest on record, according to the Census Bureau's annual mortality statistics, issued today, which shows 1,471,367 deaths for the year, representing a rate of 18 per 1000 of population in the death registration area of 30 States and 27 cities, with a total estimated population of $1,868,104.

Of the total, 477,467, or more than 22 per cent, were due to influenza and pneumonia, 389,929 having occurred in the last four months of the year, when an epidemic of these diseases prevailed. The rate for influenza and pneumonia was 553.2 per 100,000; influenza caused 244,681 deaths and pneumonia 232,786, showing rates of 289.9 and 284.3 per 100,000 respectively, the highest rates which ever have appeared for these causes. The rate is 1917 for influenza was 17.2 and for pneumonia 149.8.

The other principal causes of death were organic diseases of the heart, tuberculosis, acute nephritis, Bright's disease and cancer, which, together, were responsible for 391,292 deaths, or nearly 27 per cent of the total during the year.

POPE COMMENDS HOOVER TO HIGH PLACE IN CHARITY

Also Appeals to Generosity of Citizens to Aid 3,000,000 Children in Europe.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Feb. 2.—Herbert Hoover's work in aiding children of victims of the war entitles him "to a very high rank in the history of Christian charity and gives him a unique place in the gratitude of peoples," says a letter addressed to Hoover by Pope Benedict on Jan. 9 and sent to the chairman of the Inter-Allied food organization through Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore.

After recalling that more than 3,000,000 children in different states of Europe await relief, the Pope appeals "to the generosity of all American citizens without distinction of faith or party."

Famous ~ Barr Co's February Sales

Begin Tuesday in the Men's Clothes Section

¶ An event that should even surpass the spectacular and extreme value-giving that distinguished our wondrous 1919 February Sale as one of the biggest value-giving events in retail clothing history.

¶ The 1920 February Sale is of even greater magnitude and even more remarkable from a value-giving standpoint—this notwithstanding the continued advancing cost of quality clothing.

More than 4000 Suits—more than 2000 Overcoats—profitably purchased from a number of America's most reputable makers, offering clothes that by every quality standard are real—

$40, $45 and $50 Values

Beginning Tomorrow, Choice of Any for—

$ 32

¶ This sale has been in preparation for months. We succeeded even beyond our own highest expectations in assembling thousands of superfine Suits and Overcoats for this event. Men and young men who look ahead will not only anticipate present but supply future requirements for months to come. The super values offered in this sale will brush aside all competition and very forcefully demonstrate the mighty buying power of our four-store organization and its resultant and direct benefits that it brings to YOU.

The Suits

¶ Every one constructed of strictly all-wool fabrics in the best standard makes. All the season's newest models, single and double breasted styles, plain and with belts, novelty patterns in all shades and color tones, also plain blue, brown and green flannels and blue serges. Most of them are silk lined in harmonizing colors, all tailored in the most skillful manner. Heavy Suits for present wear and medium weights for later Spring wear. Endless variety of styles.

The Overcoats

¶ Invest now even for next Winter. You will find it highly profitable. All sorts of fancy overcoatings in Ulsters, Ulsterettes, Great Coats, Motor Coats and Coats for semi-dress service. Nearly all of them are quarter silk lined and carry the best styling and tailoring. The size range is particularly broad and includes everything for men and young men of every build and proportion.

Reflections of a Bachelor Girl

By Helen Rowland.

THE girl who takes all a man's tender speeches seriously would probably go to a musical comedy, in order to improve her mind.

A woman forms her opinion of herself from what she sees in her mirror; a man forms his opinion of himself from what he sees in woman's eyes.

Where are all the old "experts" who used to declare that a woman ought to be able to dress like a perfect lady on $60 a year. Dear me! With clothes selling by the carat, any woman who wore only $60 worth wouldn't BE a lady!

It is not wise for a man to marry his first love. He has to be "seasoned" for matrimony. Like eating nine olives, loving nine women cultivates your taste and teaches you to appreciate one of them.

When a man answers his wife's "How do I look, dear?" with the usual "Oh, all right, all right!" she feels about as thrilled and elated as an actor who reads in the morning paper that he "did acceptably."

The only sure way to tell a mushroom from a toad-stool is by eating it; and, alas, by that same token, the only sure way to tell whether a man will make you happy or miserable is by marrying him.

Some of the newest evening gowns seem awfully low in the front—until you happen to see the back.

In order to be attractive, a woman has to possess some sort of beauty—of face, of figure, of mind or of spirit; but all in the world a man needs, to fascinate any woman, is a devoted manner. Why isn't the world FULL of Princes Charming?

Every married man is an "out-law" to his "in-laws!"

(Copyright, 1920.)

Have You Laid In Your Pearl Supply?

SINCE large pearls are no longer found in the semi-exhausted fisheries of the Orient and the world is confronted with a shortage of one of its most ancient and highly prized gems, dealers on the American market are looking hopefully to the development of the pearl fishing industry in Lower California and on the Venezuelan coast.

The Venezuelan Government has begun a close supervision over its pearl fisheries and a conservation of their output. The pearl oyster beds are located at Margarita Island, Cubagua, El Tirano, Perlarma, Marapana, Macanabo and Golfo de las Perlas. When Columbus discovered the mainland of South America in 1492, he found the Indians working these beds. In the hands of the Spaniards, the pearl coast became famous for its wealth in these gems of the sea. When L'Olonnois, Roc Bruliano and Sir Henry Morgan were sweeping the Spanish Main with the practical jolly roger at their masthead, the pearl fisheries were frequently plundered.

In the pearling season today, 400 sailing vessels and 2000 divers work along the coast and among the islands. The annual product of Margarita Island alone is valued at $100,000. An immense pearl with an estimated value of $100,000 was found at Margarita in 1579 and presented to King Philip of Spain. The Venezuelan pearls are of good orient and color and are noted for their number of baroque or irregularly shaped pearls.

Perhaps the richest pearl fisheries in America lie along the west coast of the Gulf of California from La Paz to the Island of Loreto and around Tibouron across the gulf on the Mexican coast. Pearls are also found in some abundance on both the eastern and western coasts of Mexico, Nicaragua and Costa Rica. The "Pearl Islands" off the Gulf of Panama have been famous for their pearls for centuries.

WORTH KNOWING

HAVE several clean rags on hand. First wipe glass with dry cloth; second, with small cloth dipped in kerosene oil; thirdly, with cloth dipped in clean cold water. Next dry with two more cloths and polish with still another. Simpler than it seems and windows will be stainless and highly polished.

When you wish to set bread in the morning and rise quickly, first place liquids and yeasts in mixer, then one-half the flour and stir with large spoon. Then add the other half of flour with salt sifted in it and mix; it will rise in two hours.

When baking potatoes if you will wash them well and grease them with butter or lard, the skins will become soft and digestible.

In making coffee, if you add a little pinch of salt or use your egg shells you have had left from breakfast it will improve the flavor very much.

To make a little coat hanger for the baby's coat cut a piece of cardboard the shape of a hanger, get a yard of a hook and fasten it in the cardboard and cover it in pink and blue.

Melt a lump of suet in the liquor of boiling fowl. When cold, fat is removed as one cake and good for shortening.

FAVORITE STYLES.

Wholly styles of neckwear are in the latest vogue. The low French heel has gained enormous popularity. News of attesting in bright colors and this trimming.

Spring Skirts Are Narrow, Straight and as Short as Wearer Fancies

By Marguerite Martyn.

JUST what lines the new spring suits are to follow, whether their coats are to be long or short, close fitting or full, whether their skirts are to be long or short, narrow or wide, are momentous questions in the world of dress just at this moment.

For, although fashion's moods undergo many changes and for a time she may forsake the suit in favor of the dress and separate wrap, after all, the suit remains the reliable mainstay of most women's wardrobes.

After examining the thousands and thousands of new suits in the shops, what with contradiction added to confusion, it is, indeed, not easy to arrive at a general comprehensive answer to the aforesaid momentous questions.

It may, however, be proclaimed with safety that skirts are narrow, straight and short, just as short as the wearer will consent to appear in them. Many skirts are accented plaited, affording leeway for walking, which is welcome, but even when plaited they preserve the straight, clinging silhouette.

Three distinctly different types of coats, one just as "good" as the other, stand forth as perhaps the most persistently repeated styles, namely, the coat which is close fitting above the waist and widely flaring below, the rather long, straight lined coat, with or without the narrow girdle, and the Eton jacket. This last is an innovation of the season, very popular with the young and slender wearer.

The flaring coat has its skirt either gathered or rippled in circular gores. The long straight coat frequently is gathered on to a yoke at the shoulders.

Besides the suits, coats and capes also are plentiful. The spring coat this year is almost invariably some variation of the sport model and capes, while not shown in the profusion of recent seasons have become handsomer in material and more elaborate in design. The cape seems to have been appropriated by the woman of elegance, who rides rather than walks. One typical model has accordion plaited panels over the shoulders, the fullness caught in again at the hem. It was produced in satin, tricotine and Poiret twill and the plaited panels were embroidered in Chinese design done in matching silk floss and gold thread.

LAUNDRY SOAP.

GOOD soap is essential for cleaning purposes. Soap is made of fat in combination with a strong alkali. In the great quantities of glycerine for shells and as glycerine is obtained from fats there was a scarcity of fats, which greatly increased the cost both of fats and soaps.

When soap is bought the housewife pays not only for the material used but for the manufacture and the sale. She pays the manufacturer, the wholesaler and the retailer, and each party who handles the product must take pay for transfers. It must appear then to everyone that a housewife saves money by making her own laundry soap. The process is simple and every woman can learn how it is done in a very short time.

On farms there is much waste fat called cracklings when the lard is tried out, and this makes excellent soap. We women will need to learn every thrift recipe known, and exercise wise economy while we are paying off our enormous war debts. I give below a good recipe for cleaning purposes:

1 can lye.
4 1/2 pounds fat.
1/4 pound borax.
1/4 pound resin.
3 1/2 quarts soft water.

Put all together in a large enamelled preserving kettle and boil one hour. Pour into pans and cut into cakes when cooled.

NOTE.—A large iron pot, if it can be secured, is the best receptacle to use for this kind of soap.

USES OF SALT

SALT in the oven under baking tins will prevent their scorching on the bottom. Salt put out fire in the chimney. Salt and vinegar will remove stains from discolored tea cups.

Salt and soda are excellent for bee stings.

Salt thrown on soot which has fallen on the carpet will prevent stains.

Salt in whitewash makes it stick.

Salt thrown on a coal fire which is low will revive it.

In Sheffield, England, women are given a chance to learn something about a trade which has heretofore been carried on chiefly by men. They are being taught burnishing and polishing in the silver and electroplate trade.

Maxims of a Modern Maid

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall

WE pay for love, for peace, for life—and then some one always holds out on us!

And now a Washington official blames the United States for going on a "candy debauch." Pretty soon the only thing left for us to do will be to follow the example of Washington and become intoxicated with our own eloquence.

Never discuss her husband with an inveterate wife—if you criticize him, she is aggrieved; if you admire him, she is suspicious.

According to Cleveland, the ideal young man must possess 175 virtues. According to New York, that's about 175 too many.

A "picker-up of wisdom's crumbs" is the girl who is chaperoned during her first season by a widow.

That it will be all the same in—not a hundred, but FIVE years—is a truth of which no one can ever convince young lovers.

A business man means that he can't get rid of an insurance solicitor.

A business woman tells this person, "I am really not the least bit interested—then she stands up—then she walks to the elevator—and—that's all."

Add life's little ironies; the wife who doesn't believe her husband when he happens to be telling the truth.

"Oh, for new worlds to conquer!" sighs the sated profiteer.

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake.

DON'T BE AFRAID TO USE YOUR TONGUE.

You differ from the best of the field, first because your thumb is opposite your other fingers, which enables you to pick things up and hold them; second because you can communicate your ideas to others.

Don't be afraid to talk. Don't be wary of the talkative man. Speech is your greatest gift. It was given you to use.

Men who do not argue are slow to learn. Argument brings out mental combativeness. It makes you think. If we all were agreed on everything we should be a dull race.

It was argument that made the Greeks a great nation, long before learning was at the elbow of every man who chose to profit by it.

Groups of men walked or sat about, discussing, disagreeing. The strength of one man's argument forced his adversaries to think up arguments to refute him. Their minds were exercised. Their wits were sharpened. And gradually, because of the intensive thinking necessary to intelligent argument, they became wiser, shrewder, better able to understand the problems they were trying to settle.

Argument is always valuable. Young men at school do well to join debating societies. When their school days are done they gain by meeting their friends and discussing everything discussable, from presidential campaigns up to the mystery of the hereafter.

Thus ideas are exchanged. Thus minds which have thought only on one line are turned into fresh channels. The reasoning powers grow, and it is the reasoning power of the human mind that will one day solve all the problems that can be solved by finite creatures.

It is a common vice to sneer at talk and at talkers. Much talk is idle. Much talk is to no apparent purpose. But all talk is better than silence.

Listen to any debate in any legislative body and you may be bored but you will be sure to learn something. And if you were taking part in the debate instead of listening to it you would learn still more, for your mind would be busy, and only the busy mind develops.

You can ply a spade all day with no mental effort. But to talk at all you have to think. And to talk well you must think hard.

Learn to talk as well as you can. It is the best possible mental exercise, although, like everything else, it can be overdone.

The Sandman Story for Tonight

By MRS. F. A. WALKER.

Stolen Fruit.

IN THE next yard to where Mrs. Pig lived with her five piglets children was an orchard and on the ground the five piglets could see when they pecked through the cracks in the fence heaps of apples, and though their mother told them they were green and not fit food for even a pig the piglets looked at them with longing eyes.

Billy Pig was smarter than his brothers, and so more often got into trouble, for his brothers were content to eat warm porridge for their dinner and then go to sleep with their mother, but Billy Pig was not.

He always slept with one eye open, and as soon as his mother and brothers were sound asleep he would open the other eye and jump up.

Then he would look for something to do which he couldn't do when his mother was awake.

He had often looked through the cracks in the fence at the apples in the next yard; but one day, to his surprise, he found he could squeeze himself part-way through, far enough to reach the fruit.

It did not taste quite so nice as he had expected it would, but all piglets think stolen fruit sweet, and after he had eaten one or two he began to like the green apples.

There were plenty within his reach, and he ate and ate, never thinking of stopping until his mother, awakening from her nap, saw his hind legs, and jumped up with a grunt.

Then Billy Pig tried to jump, too, but to his surprise, though he wiggled and squirmed, he could not move.

He had eaten so many apples he could not get back through the hole, and though his mother poked and pulled, he was held fast.

Such squalling and grunting never was heard. The other piglets did the squalling, though some of them could squeal Billy Pig, and Mrs. Pig grunted until the farmer came running to see what had happened.

He tried to pull Billy Pig out by the hind feet, but it was no use, and he had to call the hired man to help before the boards could be pried apart and Billy Pig set free.

Such a scolding as his mother gave him he had never had before, and he was glad to creep into his bed without his supper, but he did not sleep, for green apples are not good for even pigs to eat, just as his mother had told him, and Billy Pig had such a pain and cramp that he never again wanted to eat green apples.

TIMELY TIPS.

The gas oven should stand open a few minutes after being used.

A hotter oven is required for layer cakes than for loaf cakes.

Delicious and nutritious cakes may be made with chopped dates.

A cloth wet with camphor will remove white spots from furniture.

Keeping the Youngsters Amused

WITH the temporary closing of the schools in the city this afternoon on account of the influenza epidemic the mother of a small child or two is confronted with the problem of keeping them amused during the hours ordinarily spent in school. Large entertainments are out of the question and even small gatherings are taboo, so the list of activities narrows down to things which a child or two can do alone and which will keep them occupied and out of mischief.

Almost any child loves to cut out pictures. A magazine or two, together with some paste and a small pair of scissors, which must be blunt-pointed so the small user will not injure himself, will keep a child busy for an hour or so every day.

Fascinating pastimes can be evolved by the martially-inclined laddie and promenaded after promenade of fair ladies gowned in the latest modes by the tiny miss.

THE majority of fashion magazines contain sketches which are near enough of a size to provide material for that most amusing pastime—the making of Funnygrams. Pictures are pasted on the consecutive leaves of a scrap-book in such a position that when the various sections of each leaf, which should be cut into thirds, are turned, the head or feet of the section remain in place and the figure on another page and the result is extremely amusing to the young artists, and sometimes to grown-ups as well. If the material at hand permits, bird and animal pictures may be interspersed with those of people, making the Funnygrams still more laughable.

PLAYING HOUSE. LITTLE girls who are domestically inclined will become deeply interested in finding pictures for an album representing a house. One

SUIT RENOVATION

LAY suit on ironing board. Get ready a dish of warm water, some good laundry soap, a damp rag and a clean, dry cloth.

Soapy suds and a shiny place on the suit can be removed by rubbing with slightly wet rag, moistened with soap, and when clean, wipe away with clean, dry cloth.

The whole suit can then be sponged with the soap lather, a little at a time, and dried at once with clean cloth or rag. The result will be most satisfactory, after which iron the suit with an almost dry cloth for protection against the irons.

SAVES TABLECLOTHS

BUY enough plain white table cloths to make six good sized rag cloths. Cut the desired size and snip around the edge with scissors.

Just before setting the table, place them over the clean linen ones and after the meal they may be wiped clean with a damp cloth and put away until the next meal.

They save lots of washing and ironing for mothers of big families and keep the table linen looking nice for a long time.

The Lord of Crersa

Another Great Story

By E. Phillips Oppenheim

(Copyright, 1920.)

CHAPTER I.

A WHIRLWIND of small snow flakes and a wind which roared through the mighty forests of pines, snapping the strong-est of them as though they had been saplings. A wild night in the plains and cities, here among the mountains as black as ink brought impenetrable darkness, the clamor of crushing boughs and howling wind sank every now and then into insignificance before the roaring of deep-throated guns whose red fire flashed out across what seemed to be a bottomless abyss. Below, the army of the Turks decimated in numbers, yet still a host, within the walls of Crersa, the defenders of an oppressed and brave country making their last stand in their ancient stronghold.

Three men stood on the walls holding to the ramparts for dear life, talking eagerly together. Every now and then they paused, and strove to see what lay beneath in the red, lurid light of the cannon flames. Hohenloff, who spoke, was General of the forces, and in command of the defense.

"Prince," he said, "there is no longer any doubt, Crersa, unconquered for a thousand years, will fall now through treachery. Perhaps tonight, perhaps tomorrow. Who can say?"

Prince Maurice of Herania, who saw a kingdom, the kingdom of his forefathers, passing away, groaned aloud.

"Hohenloff," he said, "may God grant that you are mistaken. They are bold, and they have ventured very near the walls, as you know. It may be chance."

"It is no chance," Hohenloff answered, roughly. "On Monday the southern buttress was hit. Outside we covered the weakness. Inside alone it was apparent. Yet all day they poured in a merciless fire upon that one weak spot. On Tuesday, the powder magazine exploded. Their guns follow, and Crersa was very nearly blown to atoms. On Wednesday we planned a sortie to drive in a herd of goats. We left the gates in darkness as black as pitch, and never a sound was made, yet without warning they were waiting, fell upon us, and only half a dozen escaped. I could give you a hundred proofs were they needed, yet there are enough. My Prince, there is a traitor here, and unless we find him Crersa is doomed."

Once more the thunder of cannon—this time from a new spot in the darkness. From below came the crashing of masonry, and the crying of wounded men. Hohenloff stamped his foot in bitter anger.

"This, then, accounts for their long silence," he cried. "They have heard of our attempt to rebuild the north wall, and they have moved their guns to command it. Oh, to think that brave men should be the jest and the victim of a cursed spy!"

Then Romakoff spoke, Chief Minister of Herania, a small man with eagle features, but with the forehead of a lion.

"Hohenloff," he said, "our secrets are not the secrets of the whole garrison. How many have known of these things?"

"Not more than a dozen," Hohenloff answered. "It is a cursed thing to say, but the traitor is one of our inner council."

"Their names?"

"Holkoff."

"A clumsy man, but faithful."

"Mentz."

"A true man."

"Rottenisk."

"I would answer for him with my life."

"Petroff."

"As true as steel."

5000 Soccer Fans Pay to See Millers Defeat McKeesport In Fourth Round Cup Game

Pete Ratican's Eleven Shows Great Improvement in Teamwork and Condition — One More Victory Will Put St. Louis in Semifinals.

LAYING by far the best game they have exhibited in many weeks, the Ben Millers of the St. Louis Soccer League advanced to the fifth round in the United States Football Association cup series by defeating the McKeesport (Pa.) National Tube eleven in a fourth-round clash at Cardinal Field yesterday. The score was 2 to 2. More than 5000 persons paid to see the battle.

The contest itself was one of the most thrilling seen here in many a day. There was never an idle moment and players of both elevens tried their utmost. It was not until the last minute of play that the Millers counted the goal that decided the issue.

After 44 minutes of the closing period, there was a scrimmage in front of the McKeesport goal. Finally "Hap" Marre got his foot on the sphere and shot it into the net. Goalkeeper Boyle, trying to save his team, threw himself flat into the mud and missed the ball by inches.

The Millers yesterday showed that when they are able to go at a fast clip for the long 45 minute halves, they have a chance with any team in the country. Manager Ratican last week had his men out several nights running around at Fairground to improve their wind. That it helped was clearly evinced as the locals were in excellent shape at the pace at the final whistle as when the second half started.

Mud Stops Many Shots.

Truth of the matter is the Millers played better than the close scores indicate. With a dry field, Ratican's men would have had several more goals, as numerous shots stopped right in front of the upright because of the heavy mud. On at least four occasions, Boyle was out of position, but was saved a score when the ball stuck.

While perfect passing was almost impossible owing to the slippery field, the Millers excelled at this angle of the game. It was mainly due to the good feeding of the halfbacks and the passing of the forwards that the goals were tallied.

The St. Louis representatives employed a short pass, rarely resorting to long kicks. The McKeesport players, most of them Scotchmen, were trickier than the Millers, but did not possess the speed of Ratican's charges. On many occasions, the red jerseyed kickers beat the visitors to the sphere.

The Millers started off with a rush and seven minutes after the start of the contest, they were peppering away at McKeesport's uprights. However all assaults were ward off until 35 minutes after the play.

Redden Scores First Goal.

At this point, the Miller forwards got the sphere following a goal kick and by perfect passing carried it down to the penalty area. After it the time on the ground and when it was over he was a mass of mud from head to foot. Several times, who he stopped a shot, the Miller players rushed in and on two occasions, two or more were sitting on Boyle. But he held the ball. For a "goalie" he's just as game as they make 'em.

Halfback King and Savage, Redden and Jeffrey on the forward line also starred for the visitors.

As for the Millers, there was no one who stood out above all others. Ratican's men played more as a team than individuals and for that reason every one of the eleven did his share. Time had to be taken out only twice, once when Joe Lanecker of the Millers hurt his knee and the other time for Young, right halfback of McKeesport.

It is expected that the Millers will be drawn against a Chicago or Detroit team for the fifth round. If they win, they will enter the semifinals.

Recapitulation of the game shows that the Millers had 26 shots at goal against only 10 for the visitors. The locals had six fouls called against them, against five for McKeesport. The St. Louisans forced six corner kicks, five of them in the closing half, to four for the invaders. The "dope" follows:

McKeesport Official States Millers Are Best Eleven in West

THE Ben Millers are the best team in the West and I am positive that they will reach the finals in the U. S. F. A. cup competition. This was the statement made by W. O. Brown, secretary of the McKeesport soccer eleven, following yesterday's contest at Cardinal Field. Brown had nothing but praise for the men of Ratican.

"We played the best game we were capable of, but the Ben Millers were just a little better," said Brown. "I think we have a run for their money and also the fans who witnessed the battle."

"We have nothing but praise for St. Louis. We were treated fairly in every respect. I think the game will prove a big aid to soccer in the West."

The McKeesport team departed last night for Pittsburgh. It had been passed back and forth a few minutes. It was handed to "Buck" Redden, who put it through. Redden put everything he had in his right hand behind the sphere and Boyle did not have a chance to clear.

However, prior to this, the locals had several good chances to tally. After 26 minutes had been played, Redden put everything he had in his right hand behind the sphere and Boyle did not have a chance to clear.

Starting the closing period, the Millers again carried the ball down the field and two minutes after the whistle Boyle cleared a narrow shot from Al McHenry. Then the tide turned. The McKeesport athletes, Ruby Ingle and Savage, brought the ball down the field, past the Lancaster and Shea, the fullbacks, and J. McHenry put through the tying marker.

For the next 15 minutes the eleven battled up and down the field without either having an advantage. However, at this point the Millers started a rush. Halfback Murphy passed to Al McHenry on the right wing. McHenry went down the line and then passed to Marre, who sent the ball through the upper right corner, again putting the locals ahead.

However, the margin for the Millers did not last long. Five minutes later Center Forward Savage of the visitors tied the count. Savage scored after McGarry had cleared a shot. From then on it was even until Marre put through his second goal a minute before the time was called. Had the score been tied at the end of the half, the teams would have been forced to play two extra periods of 15 minutes each.

Jack Smith Sixth Cardinal Regular to Sign for 1920

Contract of Rickey's Brilliant Outfielder Received Here This Morning.

Jack Smith, the fleet-footed outfielder, has signed his contract with the Cardinals for 1920. The document was received by Manager Branch Rickey this morning. The meadowman is the sixth veteran of the Knotters to get into line.

This is the first time in several years that the outfielder has come to terms when the initial contract was sent him. In previous campaigns he has been a holdout. This was especially true last spring, when Smith was one of the last of Rickey's aggregation to get into line.

Smith, who two seasons ago was rated as one of the best meadowmen in the John Heydler circuit, experienced a bad year in 1919. He got off on the wrong foot at the very start and never came out of his slump. Smith was not only off color in batting, but also in fielding and base running.

Smith Weak in Base Running.

Normally a .275 batter, he fell down to close to .200 for last year, while his poor work on the base lines also lost several contests for Rickey's aggregation.

If the gardener returns to his 1918 stride the coming year, it will mean a big change for the Cardinals. Smith would be in a position to play any position in the outfield, is fast and can cover a world of ground, while he also owns a great arm.

With Smith in line, the veterans row signed by the Knotters, last night, will have a formidable line-up. Rickey, catcher; Hornsby, infielder, and Shotton and Smith, outfielders. In addition, Rickey has signed many youngsters, who will be given try-outs at Brownsville, Tex.

INTERNATIONAL POWER BOAT UNION TO ISSUE CHALLENGE FOR TROPHY

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 2.—Representatives of 150 yachting clubs of the Middle West and Canada, last night, completed organization of the International Power Boat Union, the purpose of which is to issue a challenge for a trophy to the holder of the Winter Garden trophy.

Any group of three or more yacht clubs will be admitted to the union and each such organization will be represented on the Board of Governors.

Under the by-laws of the organization the rules defining professional-yachting will be enforced to compete for cash prizes so long as his livelihood was not derived from power boating.

A committee was appointed to communicate with the Royal Motor Yacht Club of England, to ascertain if that organization would accept the challenge from the new union for the Harmsworth trophy.

ST. MICHAELS WIN OVER LEADING ST. LEO FIVE

The St. Michaels sprang a surprise in the Holy Name Basketball League at the Mullighan Gymnasium yesterday afternoon when they defeated the leading St. Leo quintet, 16 to 11.

Meara starred for the winners, scoring 12 points. In the other scores, the Rock Church five won from the St. Lawrence, 20-10, while the Bob Whites trounced the All-Saints, 30-15.

Whitehead Takes Lead.

Oscar Whitehead gained a lead of 57 pins over John Steppacher in the first half of his 20-game total-pin-count tenpin match, rolled on the Progress alleys, East St. Louis, yesterday. Whitehead counted 1306 to Steppacher's 1244 in the first half.

The match will be completed at Peterson's next Sunday.

Jaby Defeats Wehrli.

J. Jaby won from Julie Wehrli, 1514 to 1810, in their 16-game total-pin-count bowling match on the Washington alleys yesterday. Jaby won in the final game, when he counted 190 to his opponent's 131. The winner's high game was 202 and the loser's 194.

Orange Crush Five Wins.

The Orange Crush bowling team of the Major City League won their Whistlers at Granite City yesterday, 2770 to 2444. Wachter was the star for the winners with a 624 total, including games of 213, 220 and 201. Gabriel, 514, topped the losers.

Pikeway Quintet Second in Valley Basketball Race

Washington to Oppose Drake and Grinnell Fives in Series This Week.

Coach Dick Rutherford and his 10 Washington University basketball players arrived from Des Moines yesterday morning, very well satisfied with the results of their invasion into Iowa. The Pikers defeated Ames twice and Drake and Grinnell once each. The local team has now won four and lost two games, holding second place in the Missouri Valley Conference standing, with an average of .666.

The second at-home stand of the season will start Wednesday night and continue through Saturday, as Drake and Grinnell will be in the order named for two-game series.

Al Marquard, the rangy Pikeway forward, who had failed to show anything at all in his at-home appearances this season, did great work in Iowa. He was holding up his end of the scoring efforts and also passing well. Hurd, the forward to whom the entire team generally "feeds," put 23 field goals into the net during the four games.

The team got away from its long passing game that marked its efforts against Missouri and employed a short toss, which greatly enlivened the attack. The team has been eliminated from the playoffs and now will make another bid for the Valley title.

Skaters to Race For Title Tonight

St. Louis will enjoy between tonight and Friday night the fullest week of competitive winter sports that has been offered here since the recent return of ice skating to the sports curriculum. Three events will be held at the Winter Garden this week.

Tonight five local skaters will meet for the one-mile speed skating championship of the city. Each of these entrants has won a heat during the elimination series of races held during the last five weeks. Tonight's contestants are Harry Lang, Joe Forshaw, Charles Spencer, J. K. Cummings and Howard Norton.

The best time in preliminary was made by Forshaw who completed the 10 laps in 2 minutes 37 seconds.

A gold medal emblematic of the city title will go to the winner. Prizes for second and third men also will be awarded. The race will be started at 8 p. m.

Tomorrow night the St. Louis Hockey Club and the Rovers will meet with the strongest lineups that have been seen this season. Each team will be aided by several Eastern players who are temporarily in the city. Earl and Collins, former Boston Arena men, will hold positions on the St. Louis Hockey Club seven, while Kniested, an erstwhile Harvard player, has been obtained for the Rovers.

The lineups will be as follows:

Hockey Club. Positions. Rovers. Goal. Goal. Defense. Defense. Forward. Forward.

St. Louis Boxing Observers Who Have Seen Both Flyweights Oppose Asher, Are Picking Briton to Beat American in Title Bout.

By John E. Wray.

Those dynamic molecules, Jimmy Wilde of England and Frankie Mason of Fort Wayne, Ind., having been definitely matched, St. Louis boxing observers who have had opportunities of seeing both the British and American champion in action against the same opponent (Babe Asher) are already beginning to herald the invading midget as the probable victor.

As the world's championship will find himself unable to solve Wilde's decision in this fight, if a knock-out is recorded, the affair will arouse the keenest interest in flitic circles.

In the entire boxing world there has arisen no proven man of the Englishman's displacement able to confront him with much hope of success, with the possible exception of the veteran American flyweight, The bout may prove beyond peradventure whether Wilde is on a pinnacle by himself in the 7 stone 10 pound (108 pounds) class, where he has so long reigned without a rival.

Mason's chances in this bout are, of course, problematical. A decision in his favor, however, close to the 30-year-old mark, he has occupied much the same relation to American boxing that Wilde has to British fistiana. That is to say, in order to obtain contests he has been compelled to go out of his class to obtain opponents. Most of his contests, like those of Wilde, have been against bantamweights. He has met all of the leading bantams of this country and lived to tell the tale—wherefore we may reasonably conjecture that in 10 rounds Jimmy Wilde will not be able to reach a vital spot with any of the well known right hand anesthesias.

Comparison Favors Briton.

On the showing of Mason and Wilde against Babe Asher here, Mason does not figure to have a chance against the Briton if the rules against holding are enforced to the letter. Asher was lucky to escape a knockout against Wilde while with Mason he was credited with a draw by some critics.

But that need not mean much to those who know Mason. The veteran may have been loath to discourage Asher, an A. E. P. champion just trying to make his way up the long ladder of fame. Mason never fights for small purses any harder than he has to. He is scheduled to meet Asher Feb. 10 at Springfield, Ill. Whether this bout has been canceled, has not been disclosed. If not, Asher will probably be surprised at the changed Mason whom he will find opposed to him.

Mason, however, has not the stuff in his repertoire that Jimmy Wilde has shown us. Furthermore, if he

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 10c and 25c.

Mason's Manager Signs Articles of Agreement For Fight With Wilde

PROMOTERS of the Mason-Wilde flyweight boxing bout to be held at Toledo late this month, left today for Milwaukee to arrange details of the contest with Wilde's representative, Dan Hughes. Mason's manager, George Blumer, was a member of the party.

Blumer yesterday signed the agreement consenting to the fight, agreeing to the franchise and other terms. The man who weighs 108 pounds at 3 p. m. the day of the fight. The date will be set by Wilde after the conference with Wilde tomorrow, in a probability.

It is expected that the Toledo coliseum will be the battle ground and that it will be a no-doubt contest.

ASHER-MASON CONTEST APPARENTLY STILL ON

Sammy Eckert, manager of Babe Asher, was notified by wire this morning that the Springfield club here which Babe and Frankie Mason are scheduled to appear for, had posted a $200 forfeit to guarantee the match. It was feared at a time that Mason's arrangements to meet Jimmy Wilde later in the month might result in the bout with Asher being canceled.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS.

Penologists are trying the effect of music as a mitigator of criminal tendencies among convicts.—A Magazine.

When Dog-Faced McGinty was sent to Sing-Sing To serve out a 30-year sentence, They fed him with Grog in an effort to bring His soul to the light of repentance. The Sultie from "Peer Gyn" left him cold as a stone, He clung to his criminal bias, And vainly they blew, on a B flat trombone, The weird Meditations of Thal.

The fabric composing the mind of this crook With evil was so interwoven, He gave his instructors a blackguardly look When they played to him Bach and Beethoven. He savagely rattled the bars of his cell And waxed imprecatingly wordy At a xylophone solo "Selections from Tell" And the bleak "Miserere," by Verdi.

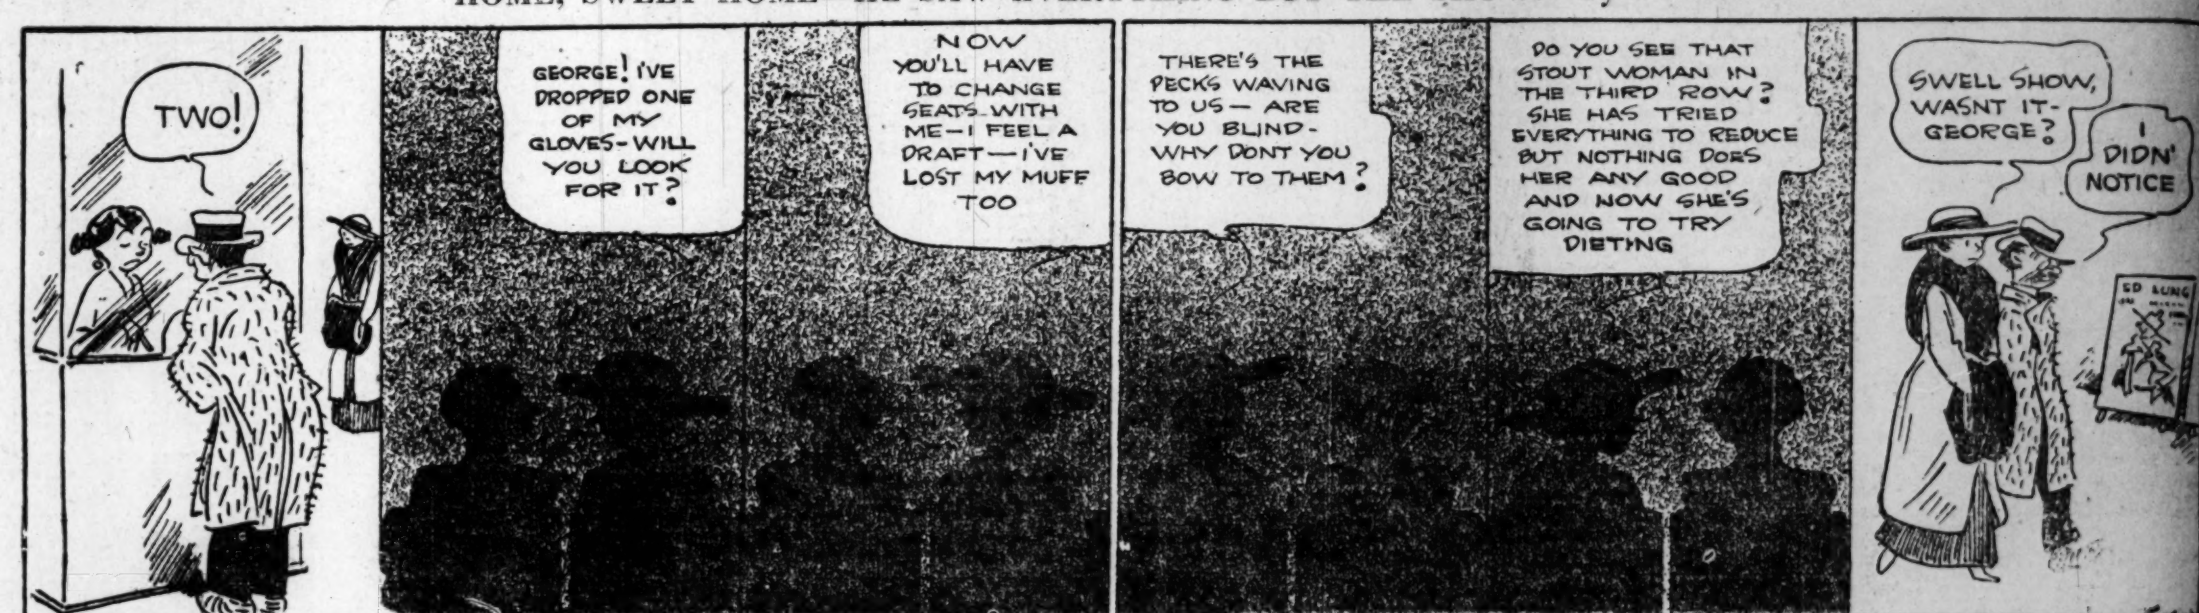

A colored quartette raised shrill minors aloft With true Senegambian ardor, But instead of becoming more gentle and soft His visage grew harder and harder. And even the songs of the home on the farm He found neither soothing nor tender. All music, in fact seemed devoid of all charm To please this flint-hearted offender.

Then they tried him with jazz, and the rascally scamp Was lulled by its galloping measure, His feet patted time to the strains of "the Vamp" And he chuckled with rapturous pleasure. He gasped his repentance, he crooned with delight, The fantastic melodies thrilled him. The pep in the jazz did the business all right— Overdid it in fact—for it killed him!
